

Heyyy Marc! Ce faaaci? :)) I hope you're good! I know you're probably super busy rn but I have a song in mind and was wondering if you'd be free to work on it together. It's a chill R&B tune and I'd like to have it ready for the new BBC Live Lounge Introducing contest. Only thing is, if you're up for it it has to be done by Saturday night cuz that's when the deadline for the submissions is. Let me know if that works for you and if not, no worries! :)
