BA (Hons)
THEATRE DESIGN AND PRODUCTION

INDIVIDUAL
THEATRE PRACTICE

Module Code: HPTD5003

Ian Carling

Module Supervisor:
Stacey-Jo Atkinson
2018-19

INDIVIDUAL PROJECT BRIEF & ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Project Task:

- Analysis and exploration of the role of an Assistant Production Manager for 'Earthquakes in London'
- Work with the Director, Production Manager and Designer to fulfill the production.
- Project will include all necessary paperwork associated with the role and documentation of the process.

General Aims:

- To enable students to pursue an in-depth investigation into an aspect of theatre design or production of the student's choice.

Learning Outcomes:

In marking your work on this module your tutor expects you to:

- Investigate the chosen subject in a way which synthesises theory and practice in an appropriately specialised manner, which draws upon knowledge and skills acquired in other areas of the programme;

- Critically appraise dramatic principles or production practices, through research and critical reflection;

- Display a range of design/production skills and techniques to an appropriate standard;

- Demonstrate creative and critical exploration of your chosen study area.

Timetable

You will have a series of scheduled tutorial times with your supervisor, as well as some group sessions focusing on presentations. The times for your tutorials will be scheduled as things progress, as might the content if needed. We have attempted to provide you with some targets for each of the meetings to aid your progression.

Meeting 1 – Thursday 10th January – Schedule on Moodle

This introductory meeting will enable you to meet your tutor and engage in a discussion about the project.

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- An understanding of the depth and breadth of the project

DP Design meeting with Directors

At this meeting you should demonstrate:
- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- Evidence of analysis & breakdowns
- Initial ideas/research

Meeting 2

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- Create a check list of paperwork & documentation needed during production
- Start process workbook
- Schedule on DP Google calendar
- Analysis of personal strengths and weaknesses

Meeting 3

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- An understanding of the nature of the role of a Production Manager in UK
- Meeting with Production Manager
- Up to date process workbook

Meeting 4

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- In-depth research
- Check stock takes are complete (all departments)
- Up to date paperwork
- Up to date process workbook

Meeting 5

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- Up to date process workbook
- Progression with paperwork

Meeting 6

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- Progression with paperwork
- Up to date process workbook
- A basic structure for the final submission identifying key issues and solutions and accompanying paperwork.

Meeting 7

This meeting will be a discussion of the submission and conclusions.

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- Complete prompt copy and all accompanying paperwork
- The capacity to identify problems and make amendments as required

- The capacity to maintain the momentum of a project and give confidence that the task will be achieved

Meeting 8

This final meeting will be have a 'dry run' at your presentation and gain any additional support and feedback from your tutor. You will be provided with a filmed copy of your presentation at this session for review.

At this meeting you should demonstrate:

- A professional attitude to time-keeping and preparation
- Clear and coherent presentation skills
- The ability to accept criticism and remain flexible enough to accommodate any changes, which are felt necessary.

Final Presentations

Assessment will consist of a presentation to the module supervisor of the information and conclusions drawn from the project. The presentation can take either of the following two formats:

1. A presentation lasting no longer than 7 minutes (you will be stopped at 7 minutes).
2. A Petcha Kutcha (20/20) style presentation lasting exactly 6 minutes and 40 seconds.

Hand in – Process workbook and evaluation to be submitted by

10am Friday 22nd February

Show time

You will have to opportunity to work on the show as an extracurricular activity whilst starting your next module.