Brief background of our company

- Specialist business consultants is a start up consulting firm focusing on providing the complete needs of a business in the full range of the business cycle. With a core staff of experience professionals and a team approach to most consulting projects, SBC will be able to offer a more balanced quality service than many of its competitors.

Project overview

- Our main objective in this project is to organise the warehouse for Vintners antiques and give them a platform where it can be a successful business like the Salvage Hunters. The warehouse in basically a shell [just four walls].
- Our professional project management team will oversee all the work from electrical/plumbing, security, fixtures and fitting, designing their website etc.
- We will work out the steering group
- We will be describing our roles in this project
- We will estimate our time and cost for the project to Vintners. Will demonstrate this by using the, user stories, Microsoft planner and Gantt Chart
- We will present our presentation to the Vintners in a 10 minute skype call

Conclusion of our presentation

We want to build a unique reputation with our clients. So, our project management team will go that extra mile for our customers which is the after care where we will provide valuable data, information and knowledge for the business to really succeed.

Below is an example to show where we can help and advise on important factors for the Vintners to have a successful business like the Salvage Hunters.

- We will analyse warehouse layout for efficient use of space; consider the low- and high-selling products

- Controlling inbound and outbound freight. ...
- Incentive pay. ...
- Develop More Effective Frontline Managers. ...
- Inbound Supply Chain. ...
- Voice-Enabling Technology. ...
- Consider Third-Party Fulfilment. ...
- Continuous improvement process.

Our project management SBC and our team members work cohesively to meet all objectives and deadlines, our team is more like a close family where we get things done effectively. We strongly argue that this project should be given to us as we provide excellent customer care and are very competitive in this market, thank you for listening to us.
