Character Bio Brief

Husband:

Husband is in his late twenties, though his back feels like it's in its late sixties. A master of procrastination, lethargy and panic. Does not deal with stress very well, in fact tends to get rather flustered at the slightest inconvenience. Considers himself to be quite funny, though Wife may disagree, tends to make jokes at inappropriate times. Speaks fluent sarcasm.

Wife:

Wife is in her twenties also, though it would be rude to say which side of twenty five she is. Level headed, pragmatic and a natural leader, tends to be the adult of the relationship. Despite all of that she does tend to lose her calm at Husband and his shenanigans from time to time, would never tell him but is in much better physical health than her Husband, also has a better credit score.

Dog:

Is very much deceased and weighs more than he looks.
