ADMISSIONS POLICY

Introduction

The Governing Body of Alderman Davies Church in Wales Primary School applies the regulations on admissions fairly and equally to all those who wish to attend this school. We are an inclusive school that welcomes children from all backgrounds and abilities. All applications will be treated on merit and in a sensitive manner

The Governors of this school admit all children whose parents wish them to attend a Church Aided School, provided accommodation is available.

The planned admission limit is the number of admissions that the Governing Body would not wish to exceed. The planned admission limit for this school is 58.

For classes containing pupils, the majority of whom will attain the age of five, six and seven years during the course of the academic year, the class size must not exceed 30 pupils save for 'excepted pupils' as specified by Regulation.

If the number of applications exceeds the available accommodation, the Governors will give priority in the following order:-

1. A child who worships regularly in the Church in Wales or a Church in Communion with it, within the Rectorial Benefice of Neath. A child who worships in a Church in Wales or a Church in Communion with it, who is in the care of the Local Authority (looked-after children) or provided with accommodation by them (e.g. children with foster parents) (Section 22 of the Children Act 1989).

2. A child who has a brother or sister already in the school. This includes adopted/step/foster siblings.
3. A child who worships regularly in the Church in Wales, or a Church in Communion with it, living outside of the Rectorial Benefice of Neath.
4. A child who worships regularly at a Christian place of worship.
5. A child of any faith who worships regularly.
6. Applications on compassionate grounds, will be considered on their own merit, and at the discretion of the Governors.

As in all schools, children who attend our Nursery class will not have an automatic right of admission to full time education at our school.

Should your application be unsuccessful, you have the right to appeal. If you exercise that right, the appeal must be forwarded to the Chairman of Governors of Alderman Davies Church in Wales Primary School.
