

Casgliad 2019

Working in Tandem: Youth Arts and Youth Work Exploring Best Practice

Youth Arts Network Cymru (YANC) brings together youth arts workers, emerging artists and students to share and collaborate, to provide a vibrant future for youth arts in Wales.

Swansea College of Art, University of Wales Trinity St David.

Saturday 15 June 2019

10am – 6pm, followed by Social 6–10pm.

Casgliad 2019

Working in Tandem: Youth Arts and Youth Work Exploring Best Practice

Youth Arts and Youth workers are invited to come together to re-energise, connect and get creative with a rich programme of speakers, workshops and talks.

This year presented in collaboration with Swansea College of Arts in the beautifully refurbished performing arts space, guests include Dusty Kennedy, member of Youth Board for Welsh Government, youth theatre innovators Company Three, and the Welsh youth arts powerhouse Frân Wen. Plus Radio Platform broadcasting live, stories of inspirational youth work and research shared by Valleys Kids and Swansea College students, and as always the YANC steering group bringing their love, expertise and games, from Jain Boon to the Wales Millennium Centre.

Casgliad 2019 welcomes youth arts practitioners, youth workers, emerging artists, students and anyone interested in a vibrant future for this essential movement.

Venue:

College of Art, University of Wales Trinity St David, Llys Glas, Alexandra Road, Swansea, SA1 5DU (behind the ALEX Design Building)

Booking:

Tickets range from £5 - £60. Discounts for concessions and YANC members. Book online: www.yanc.co.uk

Access:

Casgliad is for everyone. Casgliad will be bilingual, wheelchair-accessible, and welcoming of any form of chair or mobility aid, as well as BSL interpretation for those who are Deaf and Hard of hearing. Contact YANC to book requirements prior to event.

Travel:

Visit: www.yanc.co.uk

Contact:

Email: yancinfo@gmail.com

Twitter: @YANCinfo1

Facebook: Youth Arts Network Cymru – YANC

