

Research Titles

Here are some examples of research titles used in previous student research projects. This is not designed to be a menu to choose from, and you should remember that these titles were arrived at over a period of time and through considered initial research into subjects and practitioners of personal interest to the individuals concerned.

1	Investigating the relationship between production and audience in site-specific theatre.
2	An analysis of Elizabethan Theatre Architecture
3	The Examination of the use of drama in community engagement projects with regards to children with special education needs
4	Investigation into the relationship between politics and performance with reference to the Haitian tradition of Kanaval
5	A Review of Three Types of Theatre Training Methods in Relation to Experimental / Physical Theatre
6	What are the traditional examples of Transgenderism in British theatre and how can they be theoretically linked to Queer and Gender theory?
7	ArtSpace LifeSpace: A Case Study
8	CCTV: How it Effects Social Performance
9	Exploring the ethos and ethics of Footsbarn Theatre Company
10	Effective Management techniques for a Stage Manager
11	Green Theatre (eco theatre): A study of Arcola Theatre, London