

Careers Fair

Wed, 30 March 2022

9:30am – 4:00pm

Winchester House,
London Campus

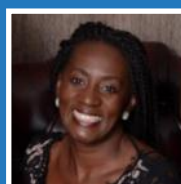

09:30am-11:30am Generic Workshops: Available to all students

1. How to Present Yourself Compellingly on Your CV and a Job Application Form
Room: WH3

Carline Benoit

Carline has 12 years' experience in recruitment and placements for trainers & members of staff.

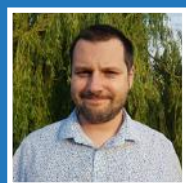

3. Valuing Yourself, Your Culture and Finding Your Passion

Room: WH5

Elizabeth Eyoma

Training Facilitator in a Multi-disciplinary Educational Team. Elizabeth sits on a Race Equality Network Board.

2. Overcoming Barriers and Achieving Your Goals
Room: WH4

Simon Gledhill

Currently Social Worker with previous experience as a Police Officer and Sergeant.

4. Succeeding at Job Interviews

Room: WH8

Janet Edward

Currently a practicing Midwife. Janet has co-ordinated and delivers training on serious harms affecting children and families

11:30am-1:30pm
Careers Fair (Employers)

An opportunity to meet employers and volunteering organisations to find out about their recruitment processes and opportunities available for paid and volunteering work with their companies.

angela mortimer

...and more!

*Students who attended the workshops can collect a participation certificate from the reception.

The event is organised by Maristela Parfitt, Careers Adviser at London campus.

Maristela Parfitt
Careers Adviser
careers@uwtsd.ac.uk

2:00pm-4:00pm Programme-related Workshops

Targeted towards

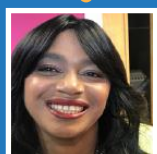

Certificate of Higher Education Skills for the Workplace students

Improving Your Employability Skills: How to Present Yourself to Employers

Simon Gledhill

Simon is currently in a senior role within learning and development in a local authority and is responsible for a wider workforce.

Room:
WH3

Targeted towards

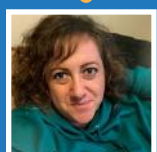

Certificate of Higher Education Skills for the Workplace (Health & Social Care) students

Career prospects for Health and Social Care Practitioners in the Post-Covid-19 Era

Carline Benoit

Qualified Social Worker Practise Educator. Background in fostering adoption within children social care and voluntary organisation.

Room:
WH4

Targeted towards

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management, MBA and DBA students

How to be a Successful Leader

Gabriella Russo

Gabriella has managed a large team whilst working for NSPCC. She is a subject expert and works closely with educational settings both in UK and abroad.

Room:
WH5

Targeted towards

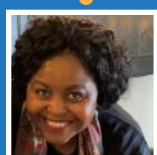

BSc Health & Social Care students

Working With and Supporting Vulnerable Groups

Jim Meehan

Jim works with people with substance misuse issues and mental health. He has been practicing for over 30 years.

Room:
WH7

Targeted towards

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management, MBA and DBA students

Entrepreneurship - How to Become Your Own Boss

Hannah Heil

Hannah is the founder and director of B2B company, Resonance Dynamics Ltd which she founded in April 2018.

Hannah will also be joined live via Teams by the University's enterprise team.

For more information about the team, please go to: <https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/for-business/enterprise/>

Room:
WH8

Targeted towards

BSc Cloud Computing students

Working in the IT Industry

Simon Hind

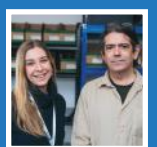

The senior Service Desk Engineer from UWTSD. Simon has been working for UWTSD for over 7 years.

Gary Marshall

Originally from Australia he has lived in London for nearly 20 years, where he has held positions as Head of IT for ABC's London News Bureau, Lion Television and Metia before deciding 12 years ago that it was time to start his own company, Marshall Info Tech. Gary is a highly experienced IT Director with over 30 years helping businesses in the creative industries manage their technology.

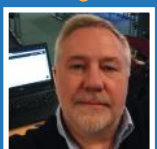

Room:
WH2

Cat Smith & Jim Ottaway

Cat Smith, (Chief Operations Officer) and Jim Ottaway (Technical Operations Manager) from Community Tech Aid. They will talk about the various projects that they are currently working on, the opportunities available to help them and the free training available.

<https://www.communitytechaid.org.uk/>

Targeted towards

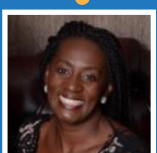

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management, MBA and DBA students

Business Coaching Essentials

Dr Graham Wilson

For the last 20 years, Graham has had a private business and leadership coaching practice. He also delivers coaching related courses in psychology and counselling for the University of Oxford. He has worked as a HR Director for Sodexo UK. Along the way, he has written a few management textbooks, worked in India, UAE, Singapore and Nigeria.

Room:
WH9

Targeted towards

BA Leadership & Management, BA Business Management, MBA and DBA students

Transferable Skills for Teaching

Elizabeth Eyoma

Elizabeth has been working in education for over 20 years. She has had various roles in the education sector.

Room:
WHCL