

Adding a picture link to a Panopto video

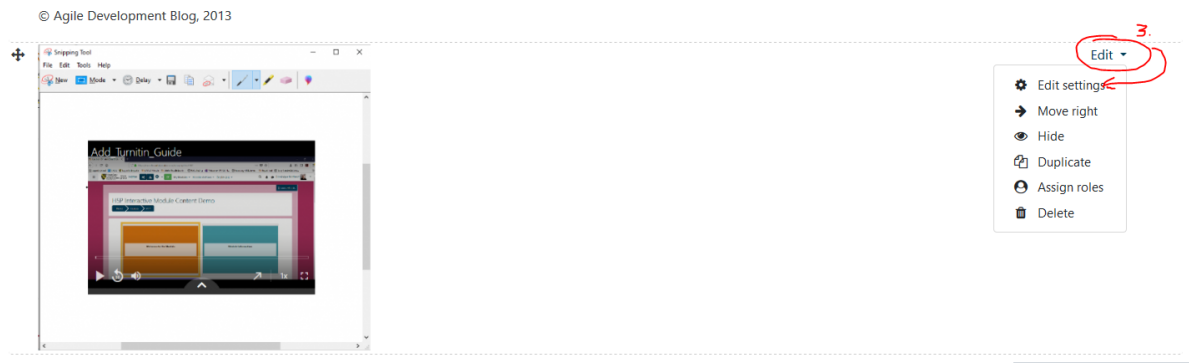

1. Find or take a picture representing the video.

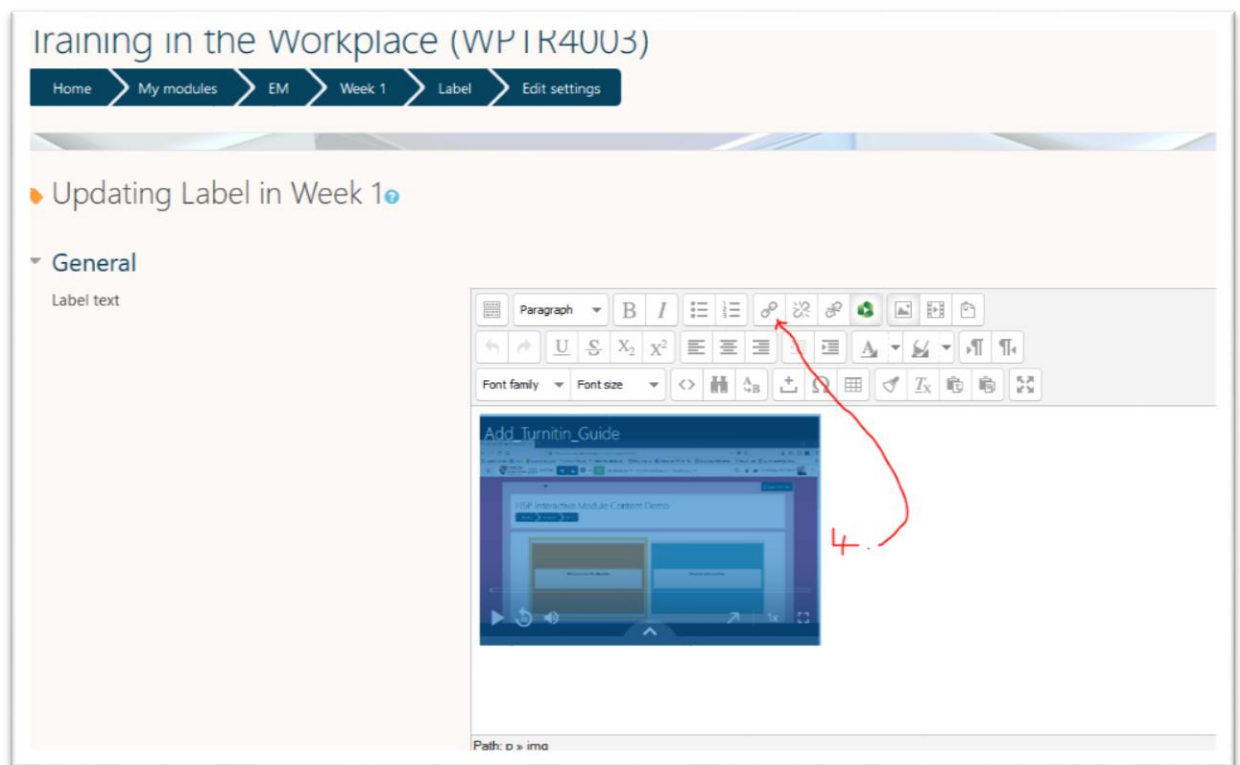

2. Turn on editing on the module you want to add the video to and drag and drop the image onto the page in the location you want:

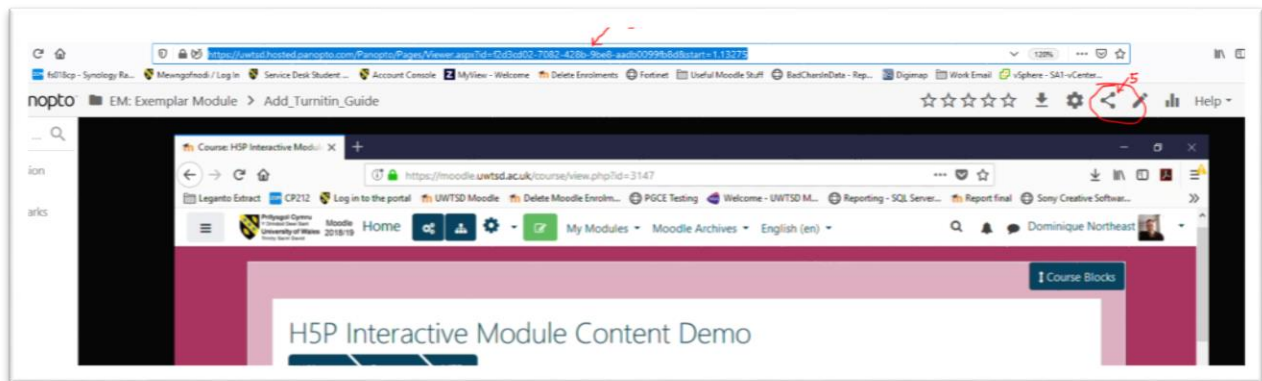

3. Click on the Edit link and 'Edit settings' to add the link to the video:

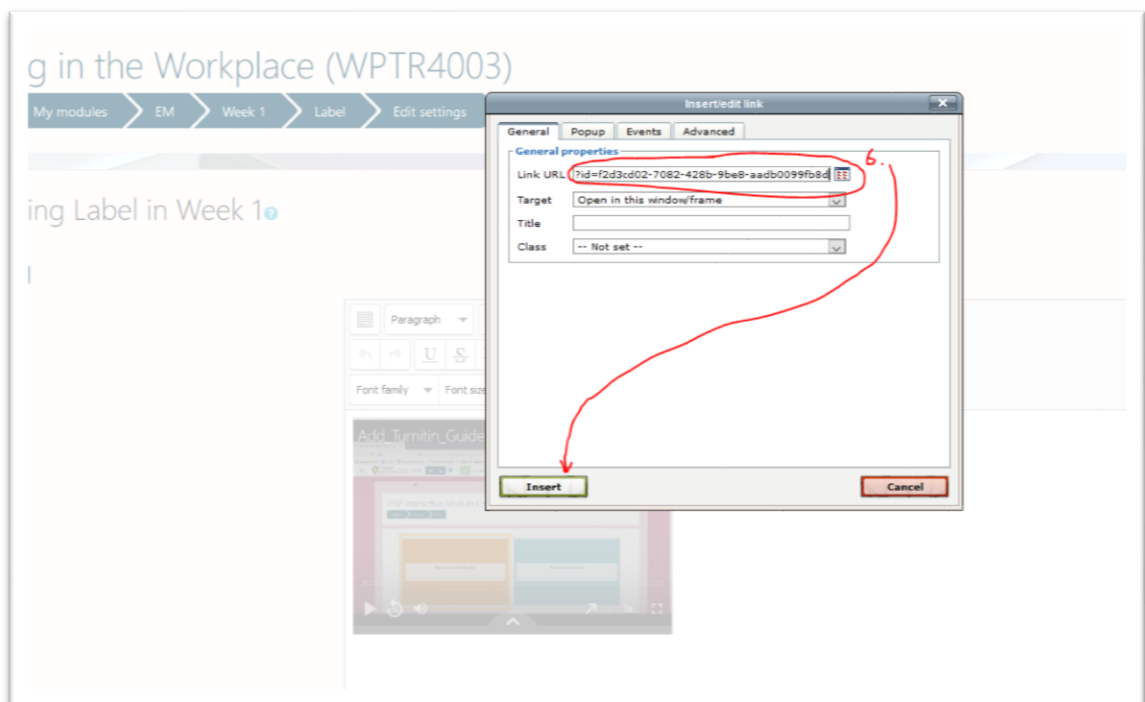

4. In the settings page click on the image to select it (it goes blue to show it's selected) then click the hyperlink button

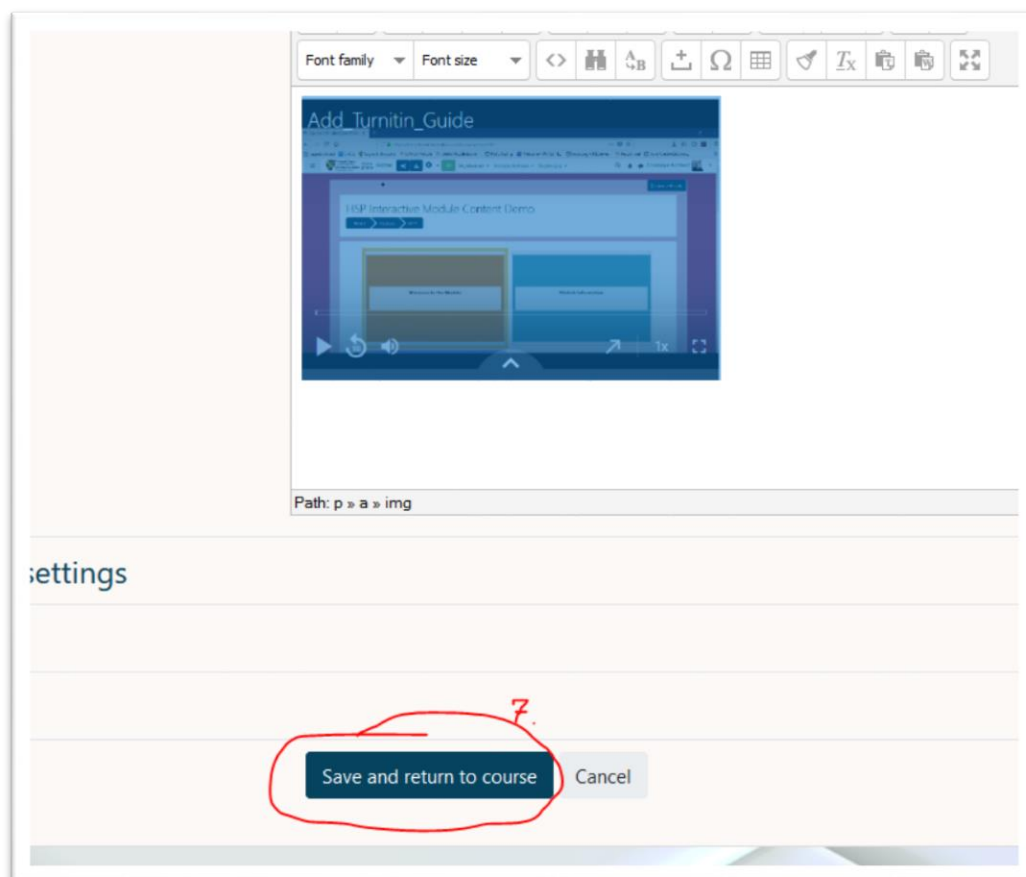

5. In Panopto open the video you want to link to and copy the URL from your browser or click the Share icon and the link is shown in there for you to copy as well.

6. Back in the Moodle editing screen, paste your link into the link field and click insert

7. Save and return to course:

8. Turn off editing. Now, when you click on the image the video will open in Panopto for the students without slowing down the loading of the page.

The screenshot shows a Moodle course page. At the top, there are navigation links: 'Home', 'My Modules', 'Moodle Archives', and 'English (en)'. Below these, there are four blue buttons with white text: 'was a behaviourist', 'was a constructivist', 'was a cognitivist', and 'is a connectivist'. A blue 'Check' button is located below these buttons. Below the 'Check' button, there are two buttons: 'Reuse' and 'Embed'. Below these buttons, there is a section titled 'Match the theorist to the theory'. Below this section, there is a blue box with white text that says 'available but not shown on course page'. Below this box, there is a paragraph of text: 'Match the learning theorist to their theory - it's not assessed don't worry! It's a useful...'. Below this paragraph, there is a section titled 'Notes and Other Resources'. Below this section, there is a paragraph of text: 'Week 1 Session Notes'. Below this paragraph, there is a paragraph of text: 'Using Wikis for Active Learning'. Below this paragraph, there is a paragraph of text: 'If you want to read up some more on Wikis in learning, here are the slides from a talk by Tony Bates on Learning Theories and Online Learning'. Below this paragraph, there is a paragraph of text: 'Take a look at this website for a useful summary of learning theories with an interest...'. Below this paragraph, there is a video player. The video player has a title bar that says 'Add Turnitin Guide'. The video player shows a slide titled 'HSP Interactive Module Content Demo'. The video player has a red arrow pointing to it from the right. The red arrow starts from the 'Check' button and points to the video player. The number '8.' is written in red next to the arrow.
