

Week 3

Quiz for the intro-sessions

HPAH7022 - Religious Change and Resilience: The case study of Amarna

Dr Katharina Zinn

Associate Professor in Egyptian Archaeology and Heritage

1. What type of building / architectural unit is depicted in this reconstruction?

2.a. Who is who of the Amarna personnel?

2.b. Who is who of the Amarna personnel?

2.c. Who is who of the Amarna personnel?

2.d. Who is who of the Amarna personnel?

- Give the original throne (name regnal year 1+2)

2.e. Who is who
of the Amarna
personnel?

- (tip: Assumed attribution)

2.f. Who is who of the Amarna
personnel?

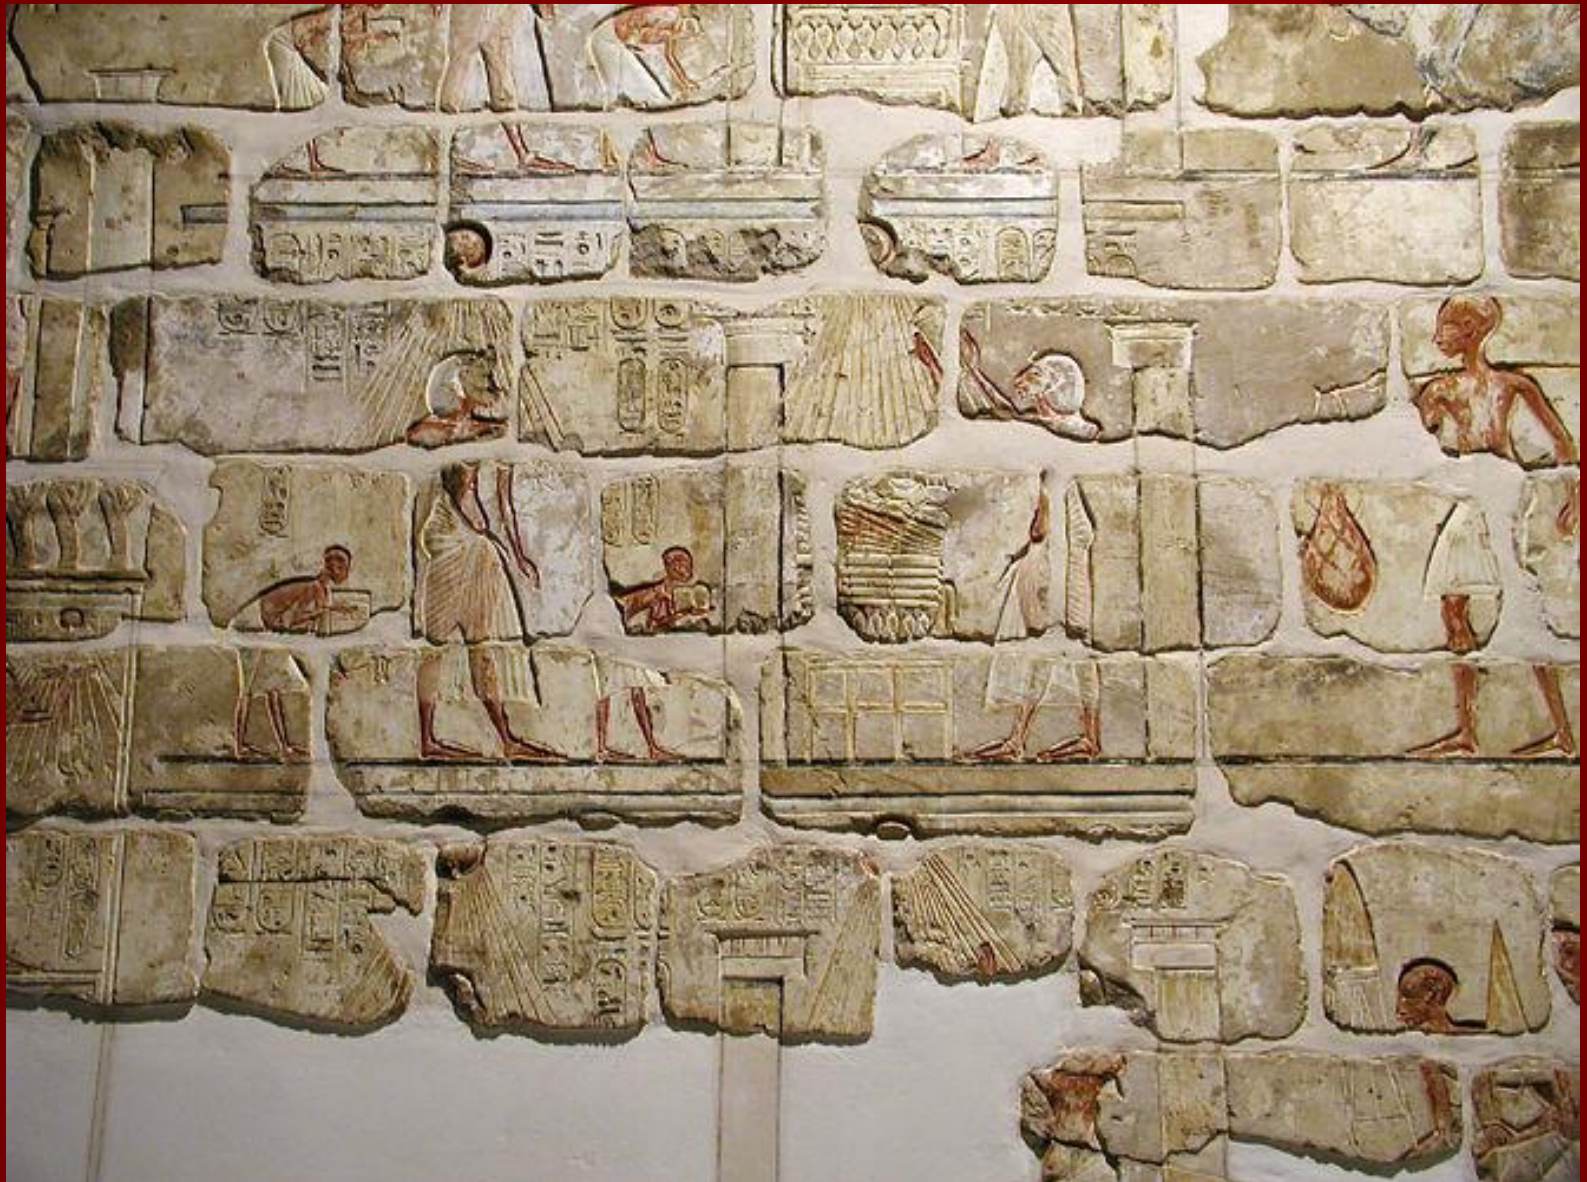

2.g. Who is who
of the Amarna
personnel?

■ 3. Which temple do you see on this slide?

4. What is the name for these type of blocks used to build this wall?

5. Which temple do you see in this slide?

6. Why is this stela famous / what does it say?

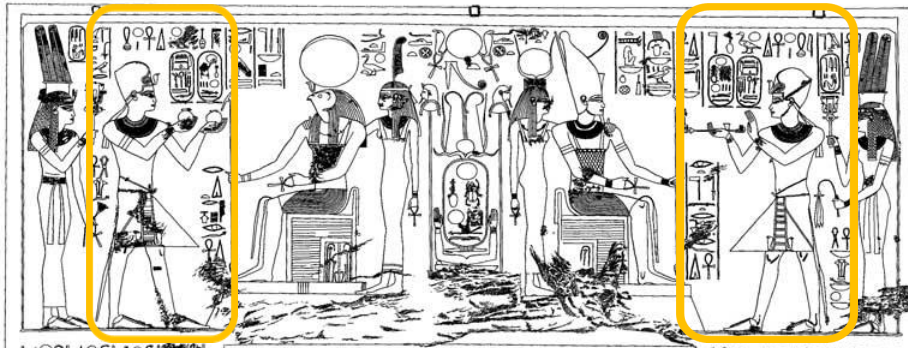

- Because Egyptologists like to fall to their death
- The more south, the higher the cliffs
- This is the place of one of Akhenaten's Boundary Stela
- It is an inscription documenting the quarrying of stone

7. What is shown by these images?

- a. So much building material lying around at Karnak for pickup
- b. The Open Air Museum in Karnak
- c. The scenic route through Karnak
- d. The Akhenaten Temple Project and Pylon 9

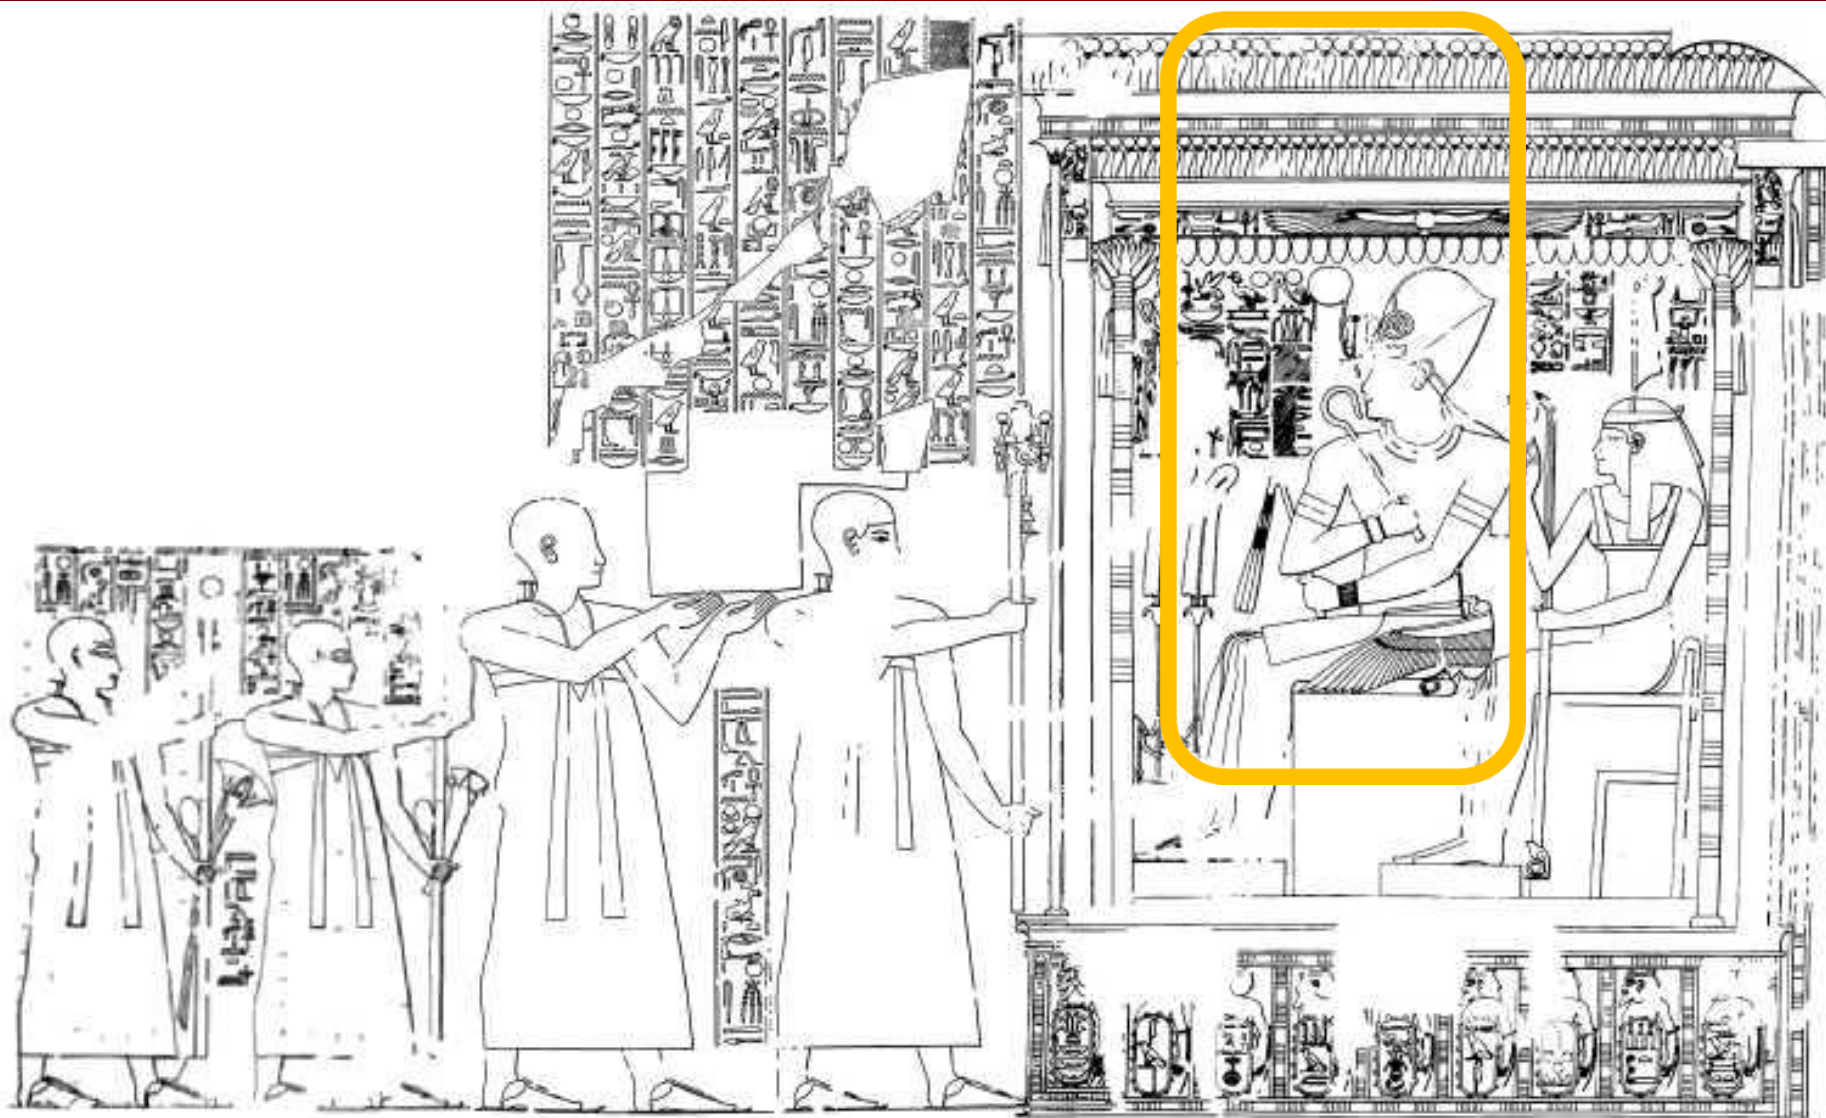

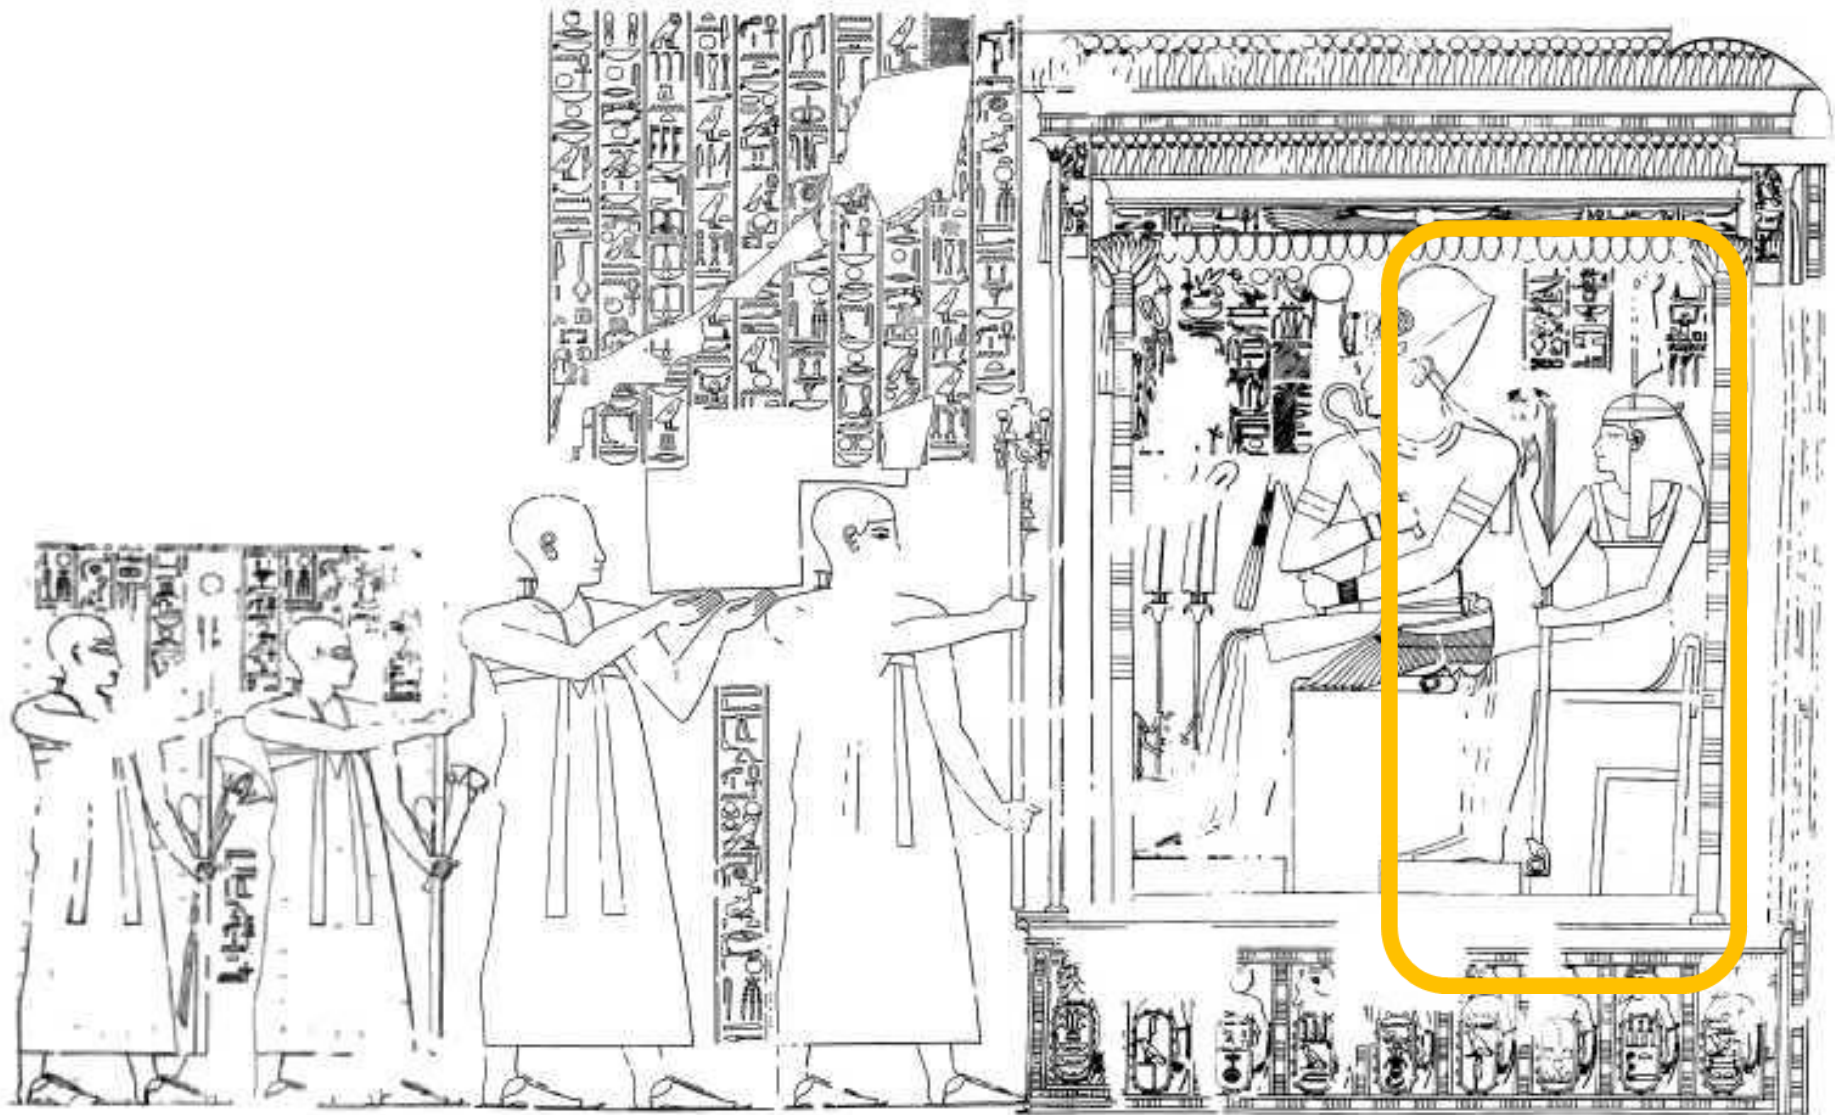

8. a. Identify the person highlighted by the yellow rectangle

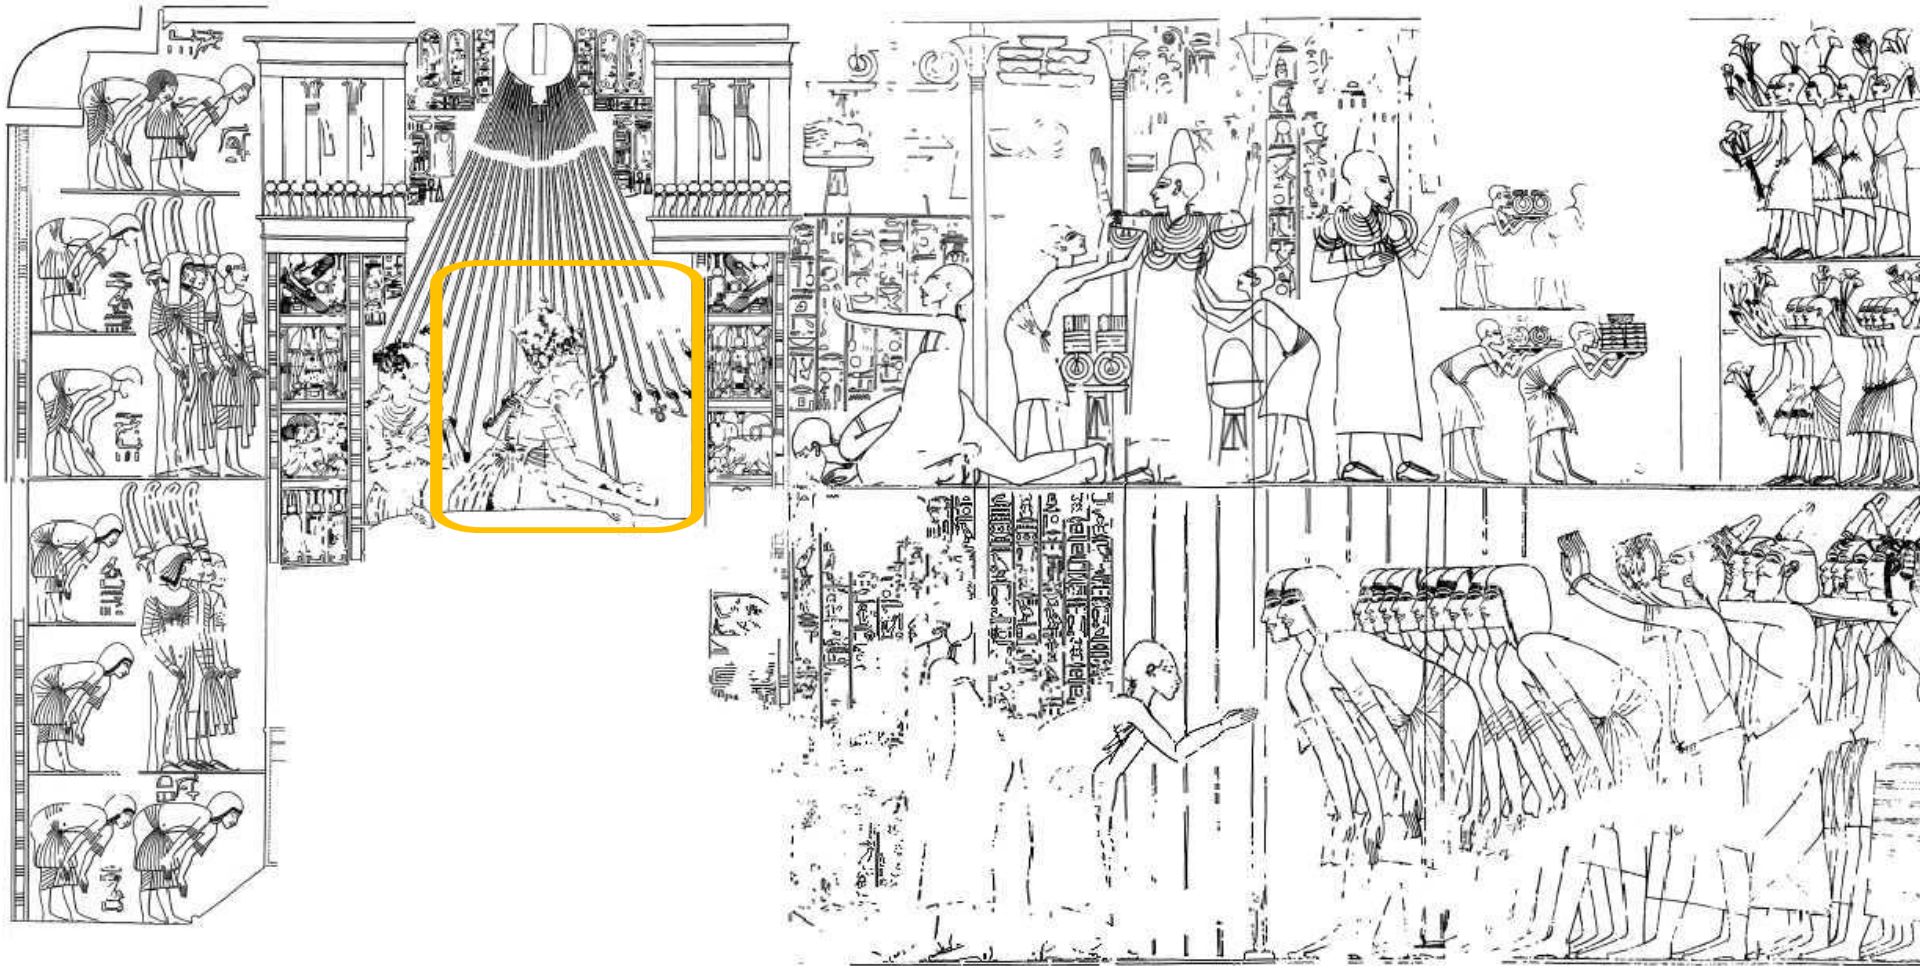

8.b. Identify the person highlighted by the yellow rectangle

8.c. Identify the person highlighted by the yellow rectangle

8.d. Identify the person highlighted by the yellow rectangle

8.e. Identify the person highlighted by the yellow rectangle

8.f. Identify the person highlighted by the yellow rectangle

9. In which/whose tomb can we find these reliefs?

10. Whose name is depicted?

11. Map:

a) Which number relates to Amarna?

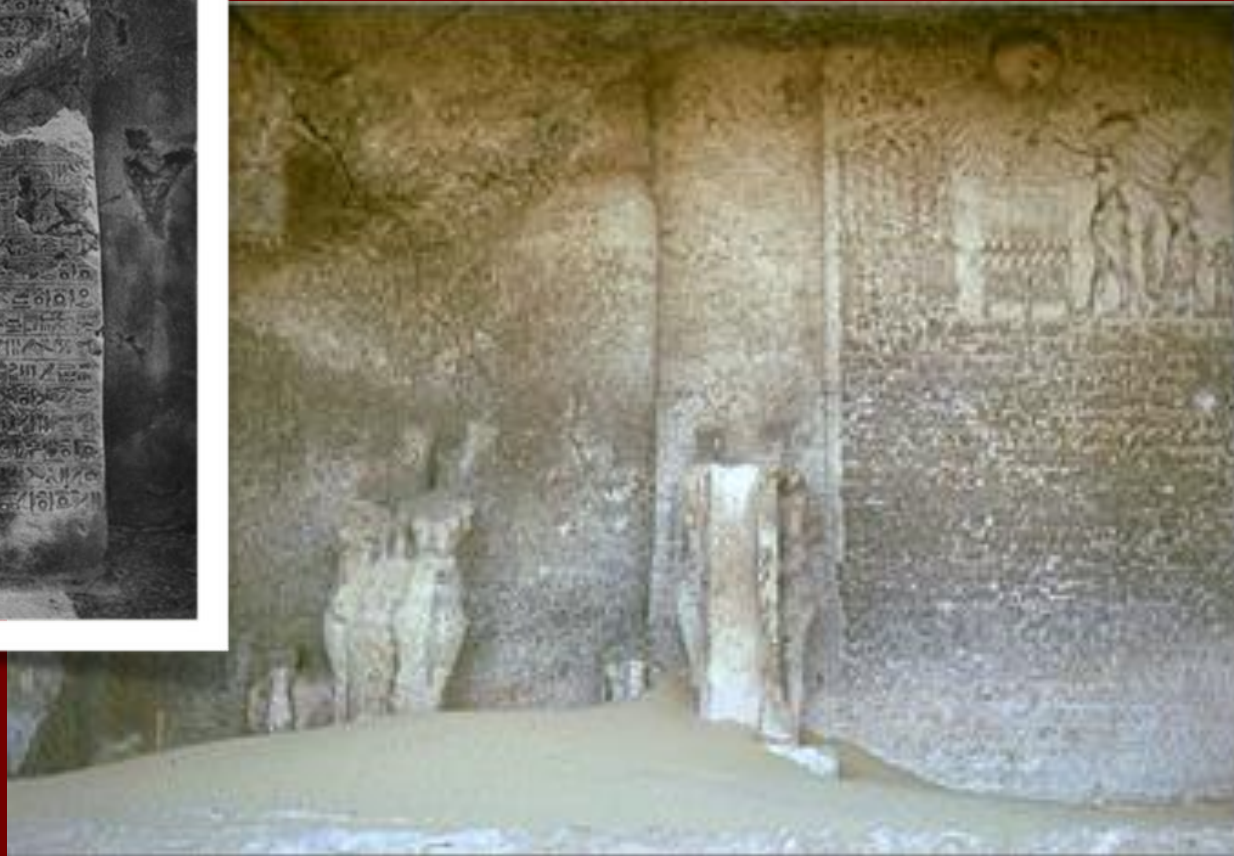

b) Which number relates to Thebes?

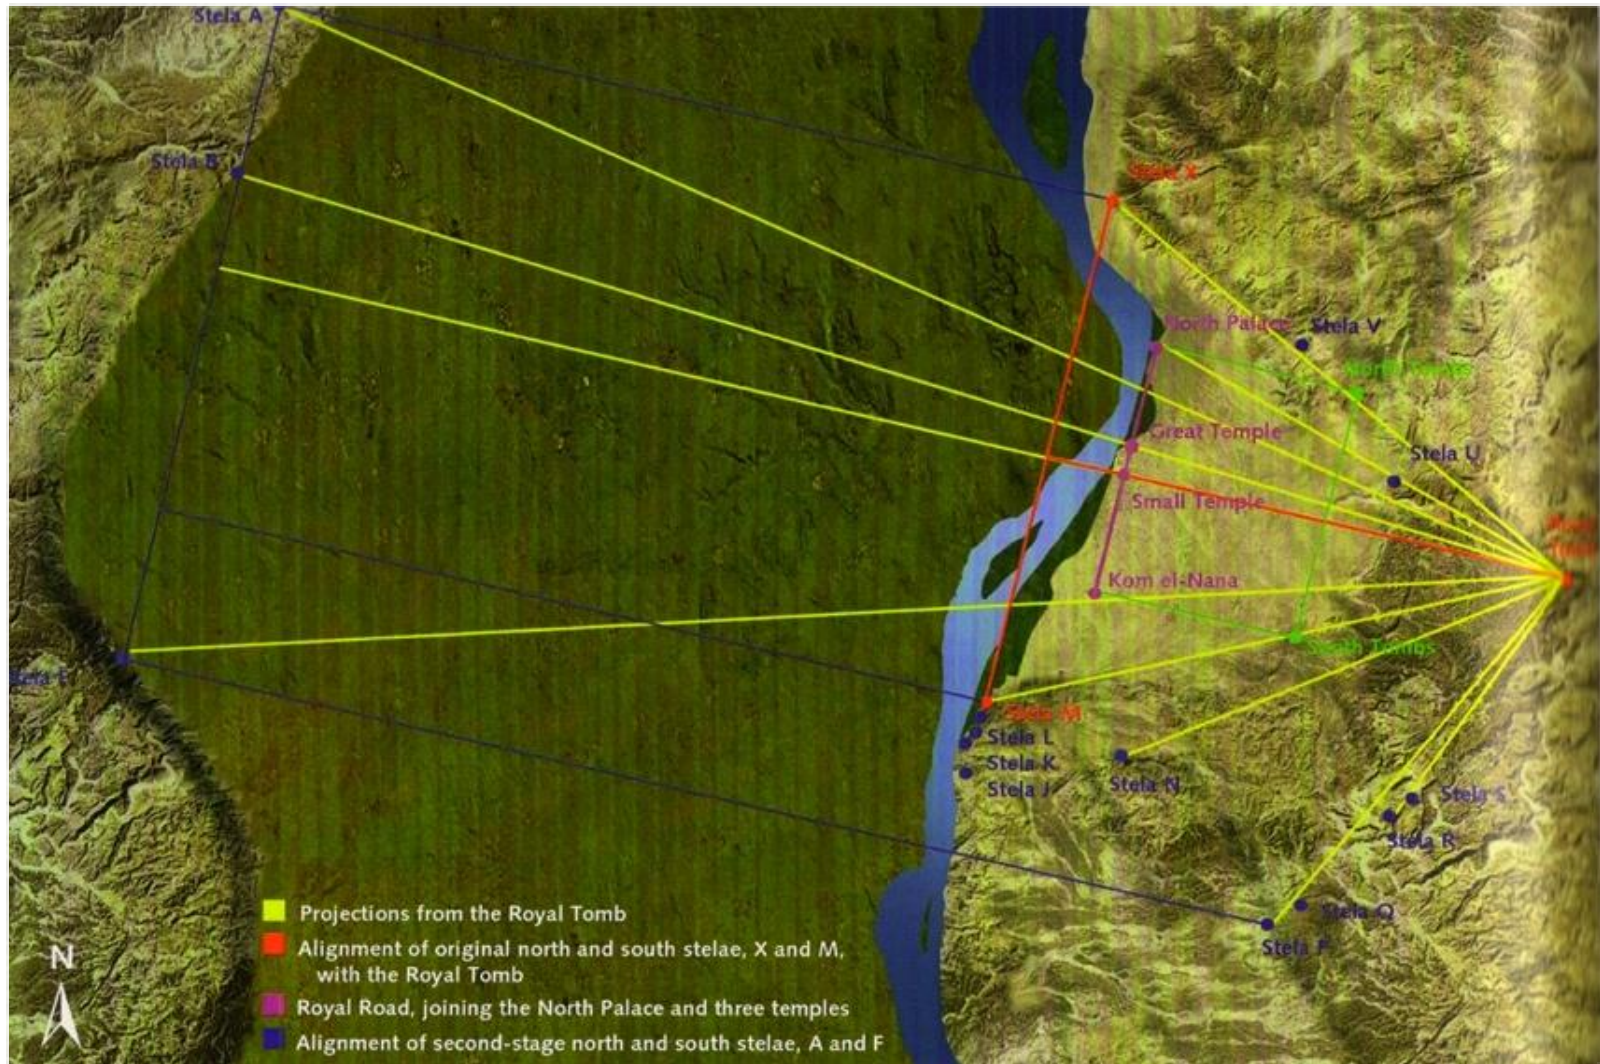

12.

a) What is this object called?

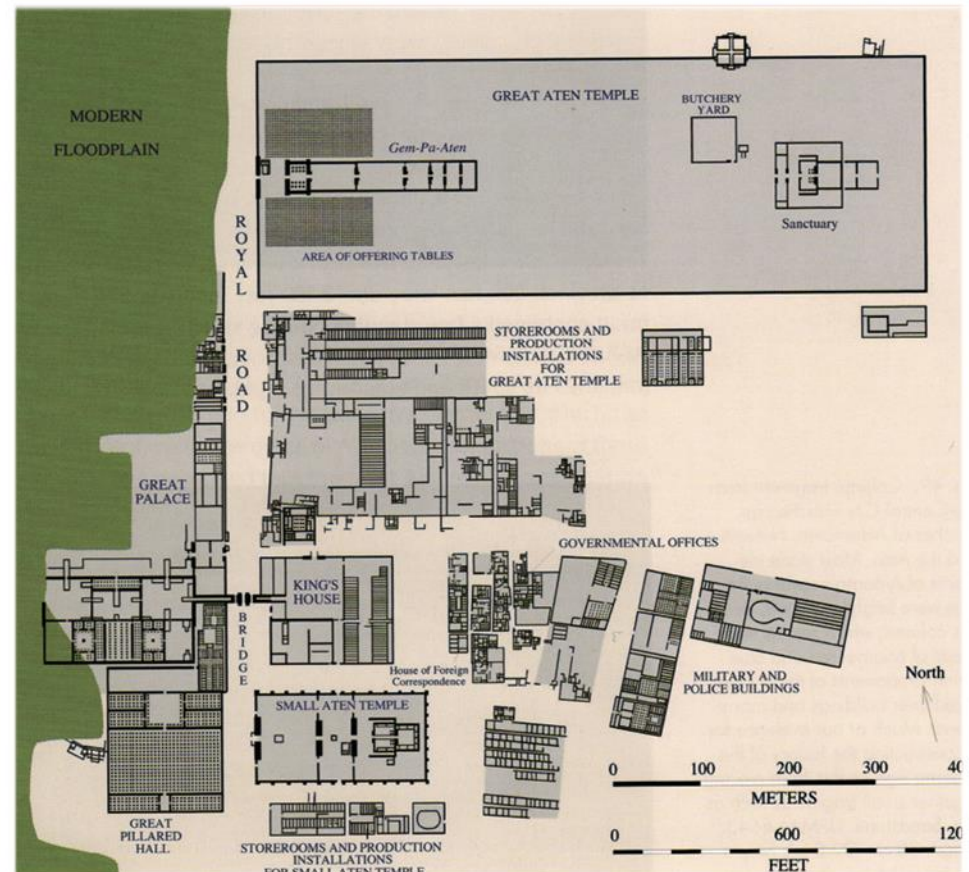

b) What is its significance?

13. Which sacred landscape is outlined on this slide?

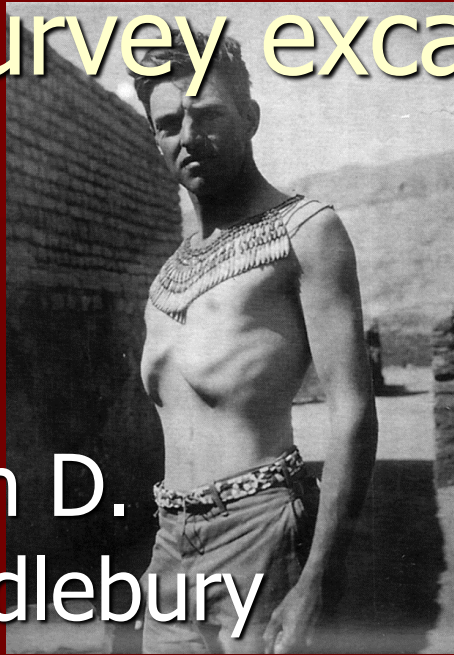

14. Which city can be seen?

15. Which institution / person did not survey excavate at Amarna?

a) John D.
Pendlebury

b) Karl Richard Lepsius

c) Ludwig Borchardt

d) Margaret Murray

