The Research Process: InfoSkills vs Writing Skills

1. Identify key terms from assignment.
2. Search:
 - Online Resource List
 - Library catalogue (eBooks, journal articles)
 - Google Scholar
 - Blogs, etc.
3. Evaluate results to use as evidence.
4. Process Evidence:
 - Note source (author, title, URL...)
 - Paraphrase/summarise/quote
5. Organise the points and write them in requested format (report, essay, presentation....)
6. Format the sources (evidence) as in-text citations and List of References according to assigned style (Harvard or IEEE)

Google Scholar Searching

The screenshot shows the Google Scholar interface with the search term "funding startups" in the search bar. A pink arrow points to the search bar with the word "Refine" written next to it. On the left sidebar, a pink arrow points to the "Any time" filter section, and another pink arrow points to the "Related searches" section at the bottom. The search results list several articles, each with a title, author, year, and a brief abstract. The first article is "[HTML] Signaling by early stage startups: US government research grants and venture capital funding" by M Islam, A Fremeth, and A Marcus, published in the Journal of Business Venturing in 2018. The second article is "[BOOK] Funding options for startups: A conceptual framework and practical guide" by KSV Menon and G Malik, published in 2016. The third article is "[HTML] Public funding for startups in Argentina: an impact evaluation" by I Butler, G Galassi, and H Ruffo, published in Small Business Economics in 2016. The fourth article is "[HTML] New solutions to the funding dilemma of technology startups" by A Kousari, published in the Open Source Business Resource in 2011. The "Related searches" section at the bottom lists several related terms: "venture capital funding startups", "government funding startups", "funding startups ways", "crowd funding startups", "investor funding startups", "funding startups family and friends", "funding startups new ventures", and "funding startups business angels".

How to link Google Scholar to the library catalogue

Go to Google Scholar Settings

(E.g. In Google Chrome web browser: it is in the upper left corner, where there are three horizontal lines)

Click on Settings.

Select Library Links: In the search box type exactly UW Trinity Saint David (not UWTSD, not University of Wales...)

Click Save

Now, when you search Google Scholar, there will be links for those articles/books that are available in the UWTSD library. Among the books, however, you will still need to distinguish the electronic ones from the print ones (which cannot be read online).

Tips... reminders...

- Online Resource Lists is the reading list, recommended resources, for the module.
- Library log in, same as the other UWTSD logins <https://uwtsd.ac.uk/library/>
- Databases are accessed through the online catalogue's Database Search, i.e. the library website!
- Virtual Study Spaces via Opening Times <https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/library/spaces-opening-times/>
