

LENIN'S ON SALE AGAIN

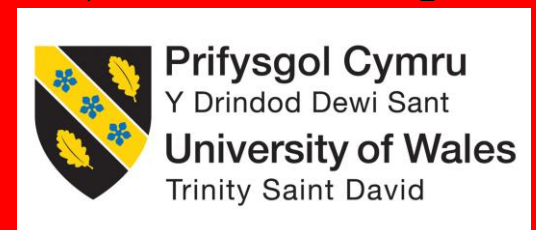

100 YEARS OF THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

Faculty of Humanities & Performing Arts

INTERDISCIPLINARY WORKSHOP

October 25, Old Hall, 11am–6pm

11am – Introduction

Poetry reading by Samantha Wynne-Rhydderch

11.15am – Aesthetics & Faith

Jeni Williams, 'The Art of Revolution: Russian Modernism and the Exploration of Space and Time'

Brenda Llewellyn Ihssen, 'The Revolution and Orthodox Christianity: Marxist Christianity and Russian Piety'

1pm – Bullets & Letters

Jeremy Smith, 'Lessons Learnt: Ireland 1916, Russia 1917'

Kyle Erickson, 'Spartak Moscow: Mikhail Ivanovich Rostovtzeff, the Russian Revolution and the Creation of the Hellenistic Economy'

2.30pm – Impacts & Responses

Lester Mason, 'Mr and Mrs Webb Go to Moscow: British Reactions to the Russian Revolution'

Adrian Davis, 'Russian Revolution at 100: Personal Reflections'

4pm – Interpretations & Revisions

Nick Campion, 'Unknown Knowns: George W Bush the Leninist'

David Morgans, 'Lenin the Empiricist'

5.15pm - Comparisons & Correspondences

Andy Bevan & Quentin Drew, 'A Tale of Two Cities: Petrograd 1917, Berlin 1918'

Please contact Alexander Scott

(alexander.scott@uwtsd.ac.uk) for further details