TASK DESCRIPTION

Assignment Specification-

Coursework 100% Report- 4000 words

Your task is to produce a health and wellbeing consultant's report and critically examine the current situation of health, wellbeing, and sustainable development within present health care sectors in the UK.

Scenario- Imagine working for a local council in London, UK as a health and wellbeing consultant who wants you to prepare a project report on the scenario presented below-

Out of all 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the UK is performing best on Goal 3 Good Health & Wellbeing, Goal 4 Quality Education, and Goal 17 Partnerships to achieve the Goals, where there is a higher quantity of "good" targets.

As a health and wellbeing consultant identify the reasons behind UK's success in meeting these three SD Goals? Critically analyse the policies or initiatives the UK government has adopted in meeting these goals. Review these performances and relate to a city or local borough in the UK. Reflect to what extent people living in the city or borough you have identified for this project have benefited from these three goals or sustainable development initiatives. Conclude the report by providing recommendations and/or using secondary data to suggest how the city/ borough identified can improve its current position on the vital SD Goals laid down by the United Nation.

Further guidance:

1. Briefly discuss the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
2. Identify a city or borough in the UK, and discuss Goal 3 Good Health & Wellbeing, Goal 4 Quality Education, and Goal 17 Partnerships to achieve the Goals in detail in the beginning of your report.
3. Indicate minimum two to three policies or initiatives adopted by UK government in meeting these goals.
4. Once a city or borough in the UK have been identified, provide at least one policy for each of these global goals or SDG's and also include basic statistics in this context.
5. Critically examine how the city or borough identified have benefited from these SDG's, for example- Goal 4- Quality Education – is about creating access to quality education for all. Review the status of your chosen borough or city and assess the progress it has made in achieving this goal. If the chosen borough or city is falling behind compared to other places in the UK in providing quality education, indicate the reasons behind their poor performance.

6. Add minimum of four recommendations for the city or borough identified and suggest what needs to be improved in meeting the vital SD Goals.
7. The report should be 4000 words or equivalent
8. Make sure that report comprises cover page, table of content, introduction, and a suitable conclusion
9. The consultancy report needs to be submitted via Turnitin.
10. A reference list (comprising a minimum 12-15 references) is also required for the report.

GUIDANCE FOR STUDENTS IN THE COMPLETION OF TASKS

NOTE: The guidance offered below is linked to the five generic assessment criteria overleaf.

1. Engagement with Literature Skills

Your work must be informed and supported by scholarly material that is relevant to and focused on the task(s) set; you should make use of scholarly reviews and primary sources, where appropriate (for example, refereed research articles and/or original materials appropriate to the discipline). You should provide evidence that you have accessed a wide range of sources, which may be academic, governmental and industrial; these sources may include academic journal articles, textbooks, current news articles, organisational documents, and websites. You should consider the credibility of your sources; academic journals are normally highly credible sources while websites require careful consideration/selection and should be used sparingly. Any sources you use should be current and up-to-date, mostly published within the last five years or so, though seminal/important works in the field may be older. You must provide evidence of your research/own reading throughout your work, using a suitable referencing system, including in-text citations in the main body of your work and a reference list at the end of your work.

Guidance specific to this assessment: In some tasks you will be asked to research and reference your content with a given number of references

2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills

At level 6, you should be able to demonstrate coherent and detailed knowledge and a systematic understanding of the subject area, at least some of which is informed by the latest research and/or advanced scholarship within the discipline. You should be aware of the uncertainty, ambiguity and limits of knowledge. Your work must demonstrate the growing extent of your knowledge and systematic understanding of concepts and underlying principles associated with the subject area. Knowledge relates to the facts, information and skills you have acquired through your learning. You demonstrate your understanding by interpreting the meaning of the facts and information (knowledge). This means that you need to select and include in your work the concepts, techniques, models, theories, etc. appropriate to the task(s) set. You should be able to explain the theories, concepts, etc. meaningfully to show your understanding. Your mark/grade will also depend upon the extent to which you demonstrate your knowledge and understanding; ideally each should be complete and detailed, with comprehensive coverage.

Guidance specific to this assessment: Ensure you write with clarity and professionalism

3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills

You should be able to: critically evaluate evidence, arguments, assumptions, abstract concepts and data some of which are at the forefront of a discipline (and that may be incomplete) to devise and sustain arguments, to make judgements and/or solve problems; describe and comment upon particular aspects of current research, or equivalent advanced scholarship, in the discipline Your work must contain evidence of logical, analytical thinking, evaluation and synthesis. For example, to examine and break information down into parts, make inferences, compile, compare and contrast information. This means not just describing what! But also justifying: Why? How? When? Who? Where? At what cost? At all times, you must provide justification for your arguments and judgements. Evidence that you have reflected upon the ideas of others within the subject area is crucial to you providing a reasoned and informed debate within your work. Furthermore, you should provide evidence that you are able to make sound judgements and convincing arguments using data and concepts. Sound, valid conclusions are necessary and must be derived from the content of your work. Where relevant, alternative solutions and recommendations may be proposed.

Guidance specific to this assessment: You will be asked to utilise your evaluation and analysis skills, as well as critical thinking

4. Practical Skills

At level 6, you should be able to apply the methods and techniques that you have learned to review, consolidate, extend and apply your knowledge and understanding, and to initiate and carry out projects. You will deploy accurately established techniques of analysis and enquiry relevant to the discipline, and apply them in complex and unpredictable contexts, to devise and sustain arguments and/or to solve problems. You should be able to frame appropriate questions to achieve a solution - or identify a range of solutions. You should be able to demonstrate how the subject-related concepts and ideas relate to real world situations and/or a particular context. How do they work in practice? You will deploy models, methods, techniques, and/or theories, in that context or circumstances, to assess current situations, perhaps to formulate plans or solutions to solve problems, or to create artefacts, some of which may be innovative and creative. This is likely to involve, for instance, the use of real world artefacts, examples and cases, the application of a model within an organisation and/or benchmarking one theory or organisation against others based on stated criteria. You should show awareness of the limitations of concepts and theories when applied in particular contexts.

Guidance specific to this assessment: You will need IT skills as well as problem solving, working together, and research skills.

5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice

Your work must provide evidence of the qualities and transferable skills necessary for graduate-level employment requiring the exercise of initiative and personal responsibility and decision-making in complex and unpredictable circumstances. This includes demonstrating: the learning ability for professional development to advance existing skills and acquire new competences of a professional nature that will enable you to assume significant responsibility within organisations; that you can initiate and complete tasks and procedures, whether individually and/or collaboratively; that you can use appropriate media to effectively communicate information, arguments and analysis in a variety of forms to specialist and non-specialist audiences; fluency of expression; clarity and effectiveness in presentation and organisation. Work should be coherent and well-structured in presentation and organisation.

Guidance specific to this assessment: You will be assessed on your overall ability to engage and take responsibility for your own learning here .
