

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
General Comments
Daffyd, you have shown some excellent Excel skills and understanding of the practical tasks. Generally, to improve next time, pay more attention to the extended analysis and evaluation type questions as well as sourcing other useful materials.	100	57
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
Your engagement with sources demonstrates effort, primarily focusing on relevant and credible materials, albeit with some reliance on class information. To strengthen your research skills, consider expanding your sources beyond class resources to include a wider range of authoritative materials.	10	4
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
Your grasp of the basic underlying concepts and principles is accurate, demonstrating a good understanding. However, there's room for improvement in terms of depth. Consider engaging with supplementary resources such as textbooks, academic journals, or online courses to expand your knowledge base.	20	9
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
You have shown that you can interpret qualitative and quantitative data but with a few gaps. To improve you could consider focusing on refining your understanding of both qualitative and quantitative data analysis techniques.	15	5
4. Practical Application Skills
You excel in solving statistical problems using Excel! To further enhance your skills, consider delving into more advanced statistical analyses. Additionally, utilizing alternative data visualization tools or software can enable you to approach problems from fresh perspectives and continue advancing.	45	34
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Impressively coherent, fluent, and professionally presented work, well done! To further develop your transferable skills you could continue refining your professional presentation skills and explore opportunities for leadership within group activities.	10	5
