

INTRODUCTION

- My Intended Career is to be a Social Worker.
- What is a Social Worker do?
- Direct Social Worker?
- Clinical Social Worker?
- Social worker workplace?

CONTENT

Direct service social workers;

Clinical service social workers;

A social worker organize and help people cope with challenges in every stage of their lives.

socialworker (careerexplorer),(nodate)

Direct service social worker improves people lives in terms of health, crisis, challenges, unemployment, benefits, child abuse issues by making sure that clients get the best and effective services given based on research.

Clinical social worker helps people with behavioural issues so that appropriate and professional aid can be given them accordingly.

The area of social workers are hospitals and clinics, nursing homes, private, community mental health, local governments etc.

Career skills are, a degree in social care, at least one year of experience and social work Uk registered Essential skills for social workers are, empathy, resilience, communication, critical thinking, patience, advocacy, organization, self care, professional commitment, active listening and cultural competence.

My skills and strengths are, experience in similar settings, empathy, patience, good communication, cultural competence, good active listening.

My weakness are , I need to work on my organizational and advocacy skills.

My opportunities are the ones that I create working toward digital skills, achieving my degree.

My only threat is my age, in contrast the experience that I have, for, it is an advantage for my choosen career.

During my study I have learned to improve my lacking skills such as organization and researching skills.

Also I have learned, how to reflect, reference, critical thinking, time management and academic report writing in accordance with academic protocol.

Summary & Conclusion

- I have a clear understanding what social workers do and I believe that I have the relevant skills to do so.
- I will be reflecting my Swot analysis and PDP on my career path appropriately.
- My experiences working as an interpreter in similar settings, has given me a confidence and experience for me to reflect these skills to be a social worker.
- I can transfer my existing skills into social care settings once I achieved my degree accordingly.

REFERENCES ;

<http://microsoftbing.cm/socialworker/image/compression.html> (no date) (accessed: 30/11/2020)

Career explorer (no date) social worker/Available at : <http://www.careerexplorerbysokanu.com/> (Accessed: 30/11/2020)

Career explorer (no date) social worker/Available at: <http://www.careerexplorerbysokanu.com/> (Accessed: 30/11/2020)

University of buffalo (no date) school of social work/ Available at: <http://www.universityofbuffalo.com> (accessed 30/11/2020)