

Level Four: Study Skills for Psychology ECPS4018

Semester One – BSc Psychology, BSc Psychology and Counselling, BSc Psychology and Criminology

Assessments:

1x e-portfolio (2,000 words)

1x Individual video (3 mins per student)

Week	Lecture Title and Content	Reading
1	Introduction to the Module. What is Study Skills. Introduction to the Assessments.	Cottrell, S. (2024). The study skills handbook (6 th ed.). Bloomsbury Academic. Available at UWTSD Library.
2	Essay Planning Academic Writing Introduction to Journal Articles.	Effective note taking – Information on Moodle Under week 2.
3	Referencing Paraphrasing Finding and Using Information – with Alison Evans	Referencing worksheets that are on Moodle – Under Week 3.
4	Avoiding Plagiarism Turnitin Guidance. Assessment 1 Q&A	Plagiarism from Oxford University.
Reading Week
5	Digital week AI in Assessments. Digital Skills – with Gwennan Couch.	Digital Skills
6	PDP What is a PDP Smart Goals	See PDP materials on Moodle under Week 6.
7	Critical Thinking Research in Psychology. The Scientific community	Defining Critical Thinking Critical Thinking
8	Time Management Working Smartly APA referencing with Alison Evans	Cottrell, S. (2024). The study skills handbook (6 th ed.). Bloomsbury Academic. Available at UWTSD Library.
9	Presentation Skills The types of Presentations Good vs Bad Presentations	Emden, J., & Becker, L. M. (2022). Presentation skills for students (3rd edition). Bloomsbury Academic. Available at UWTSD Library
10	Wrap up and reflection – A successful degree journey	