Timing

- Our exam will take place 29-31 May
  - In that period, you may select the best time to sit the exam but will need to notify me
  - The exam paper will be available via the Moodle quiz function nearer to the time
- You will be invigilated by me via Teams

Exam content

- You will have:
  - A choice of two seen passages from Aen. 4 for translation: you must pick one (30%)
  - A choice of two passages from Aen. 4 for commentary:
    - “Without translating, comment critically on the content and context of one of the following passages”
  - An unseen translation: slightly shorter, also from Vergil but not from Aen. 4 (40%)
- The time permitted is 2 hours

How it works

- You will need to pre-arrange a time with me so that I can set up an individual Teams call meeting for us
- During the exam, you will need to both screen share and have video on
  - You can mute your mic and audio as soon as you start working
- During the exam, you need to record the Teams meeting. This recording will automatically save to the meeting and automatically finish when you hang up
  - I will drop in and out of the call
- You will need to enter your answers by typing into the quiz box, but I recommend first doing a draft in a document e.g. in Word and copy/pasting it when complete
- If you would like to make a practice call, please arrange a time with me via email
