

JWELL MIAH

STUDENT NUMBER – 2210528

COURSE NAME – Make a promotional flyer.

Aim – Create a promotional flyer for Construction to show young children how to use digital software within the construction industry.

JWELL MIAH

- I created a flyer to promote independent learning for my student, digital electronics is a field that involves digital signal and the engineering of devices that use or produce signals in all electrical objects. It's found in all machinery's transport household item phones and much more.
- Roles in this sector is widely available from doing small electrical parts that go into big machineries or air transport

Further your career with digital electronics

Jobs available in many Sectors

Repairs, upgrades, army, offices, hospital vital roles in every sector that uses machineries.

Everything in electrical items uses digital electronics.

Work available within companies in or out as a service man.