Job description

This post can also be considered for a secondment opportunity, candidates who wish to apply via secondment must first seek written approval from their line manager.

Middlesbrough Council are seeking to appoint a highly skilled and knowledgeable Advanced Public Health Practitioner on behalf of the North East Regional Gambling Harms network. This role will play a key role in supporting the regional roll out and upscaling activity to tackle gambling harms and improve the offer of support.

"All members of society have the right to live without unnecessary and preventable risk to health and safety from gambling products and gambling industry practices, whether land-based or online" – Association of Directors of Public Health.

The network is a brand new, dedicated multi-agency partnership approach with representation from public health, trading standards and the NHS. It will also involve working alongside academic partners to embed a culture of test, evaluate, learn and report.

This will enable a robust multi-method evaluation approach to be applied to interventions and support for knowledge mobilisation and wider dissemination.

Applications are invited from dynamic individuals who are keen to shape this programme across the entire region.

This post will play a key role in improving health and well-being and reducing health inequalities caused by gambling-related harms in the North East.

This will be achieved by:

Developing, delivering and evaluating a programme of work specific to gambling-related harms across the North East.

Providing specialist public health leadership in developing, implementing and evaluating the North East Gambling Related Harms action plan.

Being responsible for the day-to-day management and implementation of the North East Gambling Related Harms.

Provide specialist advice, management and support for gambling leads across the North East region, working alongside key partners including NECA, the NHS Northern Gambling Clinic and others.

Seeking to address Gambling-Related Harm across primary, secondary and tertiary prevention.

Strengthening local resilience through the building of internal skills and capabilities and enhancing engagement with key partners including the Voluntary and Community Sector.

This is a fixed term post until 31st March 2025.
