

INSTRUCTIONS TO GET MATLAB

On your personal devices, go on MathWorks website at,

https://uk.mathworks.com/academia.html?s_tid=gn_acad

The aforementioned link will lead you to the following page,
