Time management skill

- This is the practice of using time for useful and effective way, especially in the work. Having this skill will be benefactive for me because I will provide a better quality of work, deliver work on time, more time for leisure and recreation and improved quality of life.

Analytical and critical thinking skill

➤ Analytical and critical thinking is a person that can analyse a situation and make reasoned judgments that are logical and well thought out. Having this type of skill in my work would make me a better analytical, a open mined person, more organize, a better communicator and a problem solving.

Conclusion

- In conclusion Time management and Reflection both of them are very useful in order to become a CEO and successful in life.
