BE MORE AGGRESSIVE

GET MORE INVOLVED (TALK TO PEOPLE)

STAY WITH THE SUBJECT MATTER (BE PATIENT)

TAKE SIMPLER PICTURES

SEE IF EVERYTHING IN BACKGROUND RELATES TO SUBJECT MATTER

VARY COMPOSITIONS AND ANGLES MORE

BE MORE AWARE OF COMPOSITION

DON’T TAKE BORING PICTURES

GET IN CLOSER (USE 50MM LENS) - [?]

WATCH CAMERA SHAKE (SHOOT 250TH OR ABOVE)

DON’T SHOOT TOO MUCH

NOT ALL EYE LEVEL

NO MIDDLE DISTANCE

Incongruity/Illusion:

The observed or compositionally constructed relationship of elements can confuse or otherwise create an unsettling feeling in the viewer

Expression and/or Gesture:

People relating to one another in conversation; animation; signs of life; emotion

Garry Winogrand

Humour:

Related to relationship, incongruity etc.; situations that are humorous often through absurdity

David Hurn

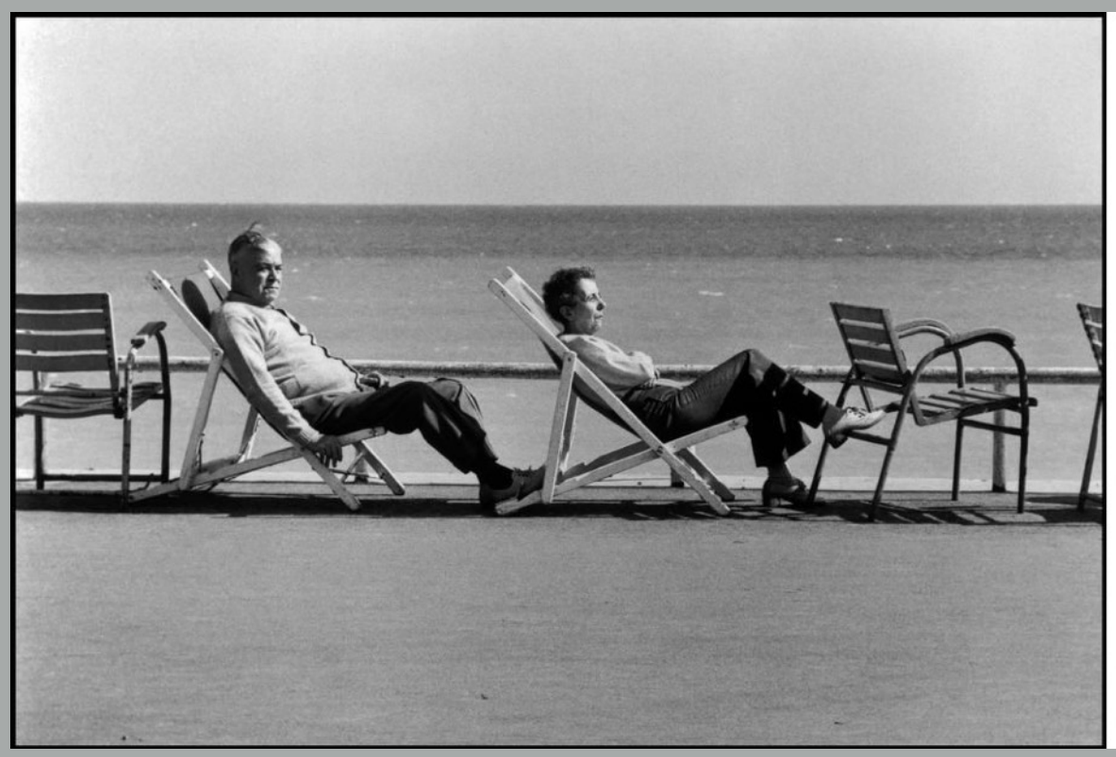

Tony Ray-Jones

Elliot Erwitt

Patterns:

Created by the urban landscape/architecture or by how the light falls. Composition is the key

Josef Koudelka

Frame within a Frame:

A device to make a composition work, break up the frame or bring elements together

Marc Riboud

Tableau and Choreography:

You are the masters of all you survey and, using your photographic skills, insight and anticipation, can arrange people and things into telling compositions that tell a story of your own devising

Tony Ray-Jones

Isolation:

Someone or thing isolated in space; a poetic element

Garry Winogrand

Rules

Best Avoided

Don’t upset anyone

You can photograph people on the street without their permission, but avoid confrontation

Avoid private spaces where you might need permission (e.g. Shopping Centres etc.)

Although trying to be spontaneous, don’t overshoot: anticipate moments that will work by setting yourself in a good position and waiting.
