

Basic Digital safety

You are safe when you don't share your personal information online or anywhere on social networks

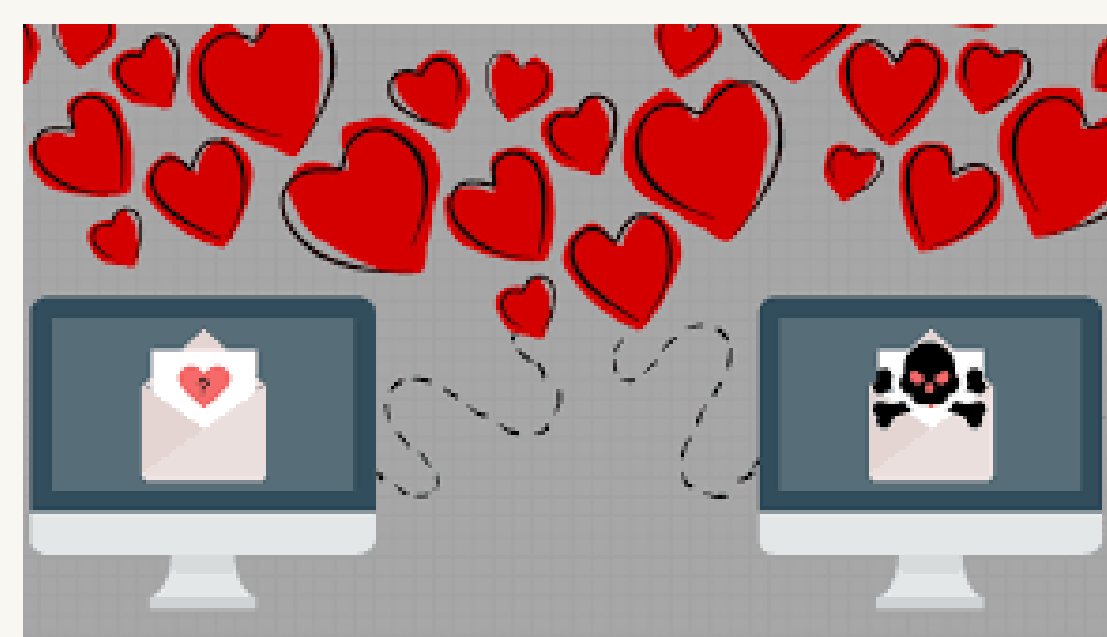

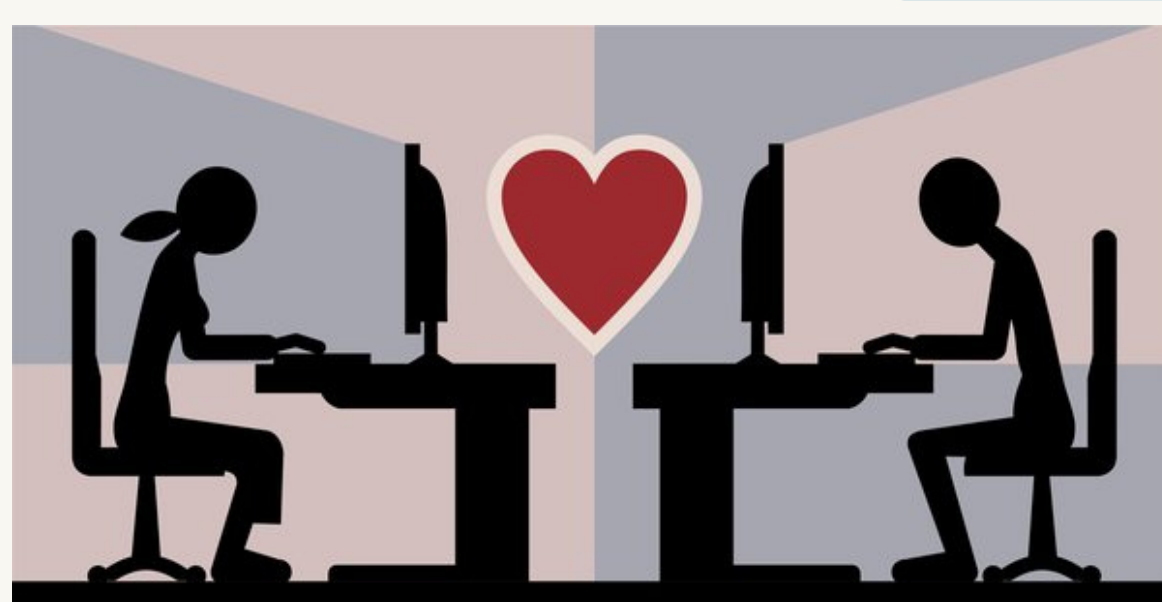

INTRODUCTION

Online Safety Is being Aware Of the Nature Of The Possible threats that could encounter whilst engaging in activity through the social networks

Safety is A state in which hazards and conditions leading to physical, psychological or material Harm are controlled in order to preserve the health and personal information for human being

MEET

Do not meet anyone that you just met online or that just become your friend

RESEARCH

What is Basic Digital safety?

Basic digital safety is basic of online safety.

One Of basic safety is protecting personal Information.

Don't Share your Your personal information online or any social network such as your Name, Date of Birth , address or any other identification details about you.

ACCEPT

Do not accept email or Friend requests from strangers you just met

If you accept anybody friend request people Can see what you post on social media and can share everything what your share

SUMMARY

Main Points Being Safe

Keep personal information to yourself
Secure your Device with strong security passwords
Back up your Details
Pay Attention To software updates
Don't Meet anyone Online
Don't share your Personal information whatsoever to nobody