

I do a bit of buying and selling in my spare time to make extra money for my family as times are very hard

I am not a criminal and I only buy small things I can sell easily at a car boot sale.

I always buy and sell in good faith and I am not dishonest at all.

I am a trustworthy hard working person

I went to the unit to meet a man named 'Jon' I met him at a car boot sale he was selling electrical items from a red van.

He told me he had some bluetooth speakers I could buy from him and asked me to meet him at his unit.

I am not a thief

I am very upset that my character has been questioned and I will help the police as much as I can.