

COVENANT FOUNDERS

ABRAHAM AND SARAH

Abraham and Sarah are significant figures in biblical history, revered as the founders of a covenant between God and humanity. Their journey of faith, trials, and ultimate trust in God's promises laid the groundwork for many religious traditions, making them pivotal in the narrative of monotheism and the understanding of divine covenant.

Their legacy continues to inspire today.

