RE: Application for Skilled Multi-Trader / Tradesman

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to formally apply for the Multi-Tradesman position advertised on Indeed. With my broad practical experience across all core building trades, commitment to high-quality workmanship, and desire to build a long-term career with a reputable company like AH Build, I am confident I would be a valuable addition to your team.

As outlined in my attached CV, I have several years of hands-on experience across carpentry, joinery, residential plumbing, bricklaying, concreting, screeding, groundworks and drainage installation – including fitting ACO and channel drains. I also have basic electrical knowledge and roofing experience, which I understand are helpful for this role. I am fully comfortable reading technical drawings and plans, and I always ensure every task is completed safely, to regulation standards, and finished to a high standard.

I take immense pride in being reliable, trustworthy, and professional. I work efficiently both independently and as part of a team, and I am used to managing my own workload to meet project deadlines. Having read that AH Build values quality, client relationships, and long-term team development, I am very keen to grow with your company and contribute to your excellent reputation across London and Hertfordshire.

I hold a full clean driving licence, and I am happy to travel across your working areas. I am available to start at once and welcome the opportunity to discuss my experience further at an interview.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
