Dear hiring manager,

I wish to apply for the role of hair stylist position, currently being advertised on the Superdrug website. Please find enclosed my CV for your consideration. As you can see from my attached CV, I have over 4 years of work experience in the Hairdressing industry and hold a level 2 and 3 city& guilds diplomas in women's hairdressing from Leicester college. I have developed skills in cutting hair, colouring hair, styling hair and providing hair treatments and giving hair care product recommendations. This enables me to consistently deliver high quality services to fully meet each customer's individual needs.

During my time spent as a hair stylist in Leicester, I've successfully been able to build strong relationships with my customers by providing personalised consultations and recommending hair treatments and styles that is suited to each customer's hair type and hair care needs. I'm highly skilled in creating a welcoming environment where customers feel comfortable and confident that their hair will be looked after with care which resulted in my customers repeatedly coming back to request for my services.

Alongside my hairdressing skills I am also experienced in supporting the daily running tasks of a salon. I've done this by helping to manage appointments and maintaining high standards of cleanliness and hygiene while working. I've also helped to promote hair care products for sale in the salon which resulted in high product sales. I also believe my high amount of experience, strong work ethic, excellent communication skills and my strong passion for hairdressing would make me a highly valuable addition to your team. I am confident that I would make a positive contribution to your salon while also maintaining high standards of professionalism and giving amazing customer service.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my application and I look forward to hearing back from you.

Yours sincerely,

Jumoke balogun
