

Schedule - 2025

Week / Date	Activity / Venue	Practical Learning Focus Moodle Tile Link	Independent Learning Focus/ Moodle Tile link	Staff
Week 1: 2 nd October	Classroom am Llandysul pm	Introduction to module and assessments Leadership styles, concepts and principles	Directed reading on Moodle introducing underpinning theories. Key Paper: Brymer and Gray (2006)	DL (TM, EP)
Week 2: 9 th October	Water Based - Paddlesport	Leadership principles in a water environment (CLAP etc) Understanding leadership in the context of different craft Personal Paddlesport skills	Leadership Theory focusing on Conditional Outdoor Leadership and Decision Making Mapping personal skills against BC Paddlesport Instructor/Leader syllabus Key Paper: Brymer and Gray (2006)	DL (TM, EP)
Week 3: 16 th October	Land Based Preseli's	Developing land-based leadership skills including approach to challenge and safety Planning, environmental conditions and group management. Developing Personal skills	Leadership Theory focusing on Conditional Outdoor Leadership and Decision Making Role of Heuristics in leadership decisions NGB award syllabus and remit. Mapping personal skills against a recognised standard in a land-based environment	TM (EP, DL)
Week 4: 23 rd October	Combined Rock/Water	Understanding personal leadership skills for combined rock/water activities Leadership in a complex dynamic environment	Continued: Decision making and heuristics Relevant qualifications, NCC and AALA Experience, cognitive load and safety. Coasteering	DL (TM, EP)

Week 5: 30th October	Land Based Gower	Planning, environmental conditions and group management. Developing land-based leadership skills in an alternative context Developing personal skills Impact of conditions of favourability on leadership style Introducing a transformative experience	Key Paper: Brymer and Gray (2006) Further reading on transactional/transformational leadership – Moodle Knowledge of remit of related NGB award syllabus in relation to leadership theory Impact of Leadership style on participant experience	EP (DL, GH)
Week 6: 6th November	Hillwalking Penderhyn	Planning, environmental conditions and group management. Leadership skills with a focus on Navigation and the Mountain/Hill environment	NGB award syllabus and remit. Mapping personal skills against a recognised standard in a Hill/Mountain environment Role of competence in transformational leadership	EP (DL, GH)
Week 7: 13th November	Hillwalking Carreg Goch	Developing hill/mountain leadership skills with a focus on the transactional/transformation experience Preparation for independent leadership	Leadership and Group Management – understanding motivation, leadership styles and facilitating challenge	EP (TM, DL)
Week 8: 20th November	Directed Study	No Practical; Online tutorials available for assessment 1.	Planning for independent leadership and 3 day expedition. Reflect and review on key reading (Brymer and Gray) as well as reading on related theories to include situational leadership, conditional outdoor leadership, self-determination theory and multiple	DL (TM, EP) intelligence (Moodle) Detailed route plans to be submitted by email to DL and TM.

Week 9: 27th November	Independent Walk	Practical experience of leadership with planned route considering the role of conditions of favourability and leadership style on participant experience.	Reflect and review experience against expected outcomes and related theoretical concepts. Consider personal performance against the requirements of related NGB awards. Consider future progression towards professional competencies.	DL (TM, EP)
Week 10: 4th December	Directed Study	No Practical (Staff away with Level 6)	Planning for 3 day expedition, reviewed route plans to be submitted via email	TM (EP)
Week 11: 11th December	3 Day Hill Expedition	Remotely supervised self-led expedition	Practice of skills learnt and developed in relation to both the activity, the NGBA and the role of the leader. Reflect and review in relation to the concept of transformational/transactional leadership.	TM (EP, GH)