

Group Facilitation and Restorative Practice

M6X00967

Assignments (Restorative Practice)

1. Oral Presentation 30%

A 15 minute oral presentation based on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission with reference to a case study chosen to illustrate the work and effectiveness of TRCs

Submission Date: 13th November 2017

Presentation Dates: 13th & 20th November 2017

2. Written Assignment 30%

Write an essay based on your presentation, evaluating the impact and influence of the work of the 'Truth and Reconciliation Commission' with reference to your case study, and to include further reflection on implications for forgiveness.

Submission Date: 28th November 2016

Assignment

(Group Facilitation)

3. Practical Assessment 40%

- A 20 minute DVD recording demonstrating group facilitation skills based on a case scenario in the format of a restorative conference.

- Date of recordings: 8th January 2018

Indicative Content - Restorative Justice

- History - Restorative Justice
- Truth and Reconciliation Commission
- Restorative Justice in Action - case studies, the Sycamore Tree Project
- Justice reconciliation and restoration
- The significance of Narrative, Storytelling and the place of the 'Witness' (Global Oneness Project)
- Restorative Practices
- Models of Forgiveness
- Working with Emotions

Indicative Content- Group Facilitation

- Groups and their development
- Group Process
- Group Facilitation and the skill of group-work
- Intergroup Contact Theory (Allport)
- Group Theory and Practice
- Roles in Groups
- Leadership styles
- Groups in psychotherapy
- Creativity in groups
