

On this poster i presented how to share a file via onedrive, it is very easy and simple, you need to press the share button, after that a page will pop up on your screen and you need to chose onedrive, after you chose onedrive you will need to select a name for the presentation and after that you will need to select the person you want to send the file to and then you are read to go