

UNESCO WEBINAR SERIES:
NEW PERSPECTIVES ON COLLECTIVE HEALING,
SOCIAL JUSTICE AND WELL-BEING

Co-creating a Global Architecture of Healing: Towards Social Justice and Collective Well-Being

In the 7th session of our popular webinar series, we will bring together two esteemed leaders to explore the conditions needed for communities to heal and flourish. Drawing on their respective perspectives, they will explore questions such as:

- In what way could we characterise a global architecture of healing?
- How might multi-sectoral partnership help co-construct a just and caring political system?
- What is the role of youth in this important process of social transformation?

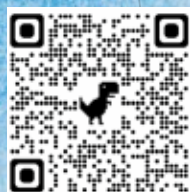

Anna Maria Majlöv is the Chief of UNESCO Section for Inclusion, Rights and Intercultural Dialogue, within the Social and Human Sciences Sector. Within her large portfolio, Ms Majlöv oversees the Routes of Enslaved Peoples project that is facilitating the collective healing initiative.

Lord John Alderdice is a member of the UK House of Lords. He has spent a lifetime working on understanding and addressing religious fundamentalism, radicalisation, terrorism, and violent political conflict, including work with indigenous communities.

Following their presentations, the speakers will engage in a dialogue on the emerging themes, and respond to questions from the audience.
