

Casgliad 2018

Nurturing Youth Arts in Wales

Youth Arts Network Cymru (YANC)
brings together youth arts workers, emerging artists and students to share and collaborate, to provide a vibrant future for youth arts in Wales.

Wales Millennium Centre, Cardiff

Saturday 28–Sunday 29 April

10am – 6pm

Saturday evening — Youth arts sharing
6.15 – 7.30pm, followed by Social
7.30 – 10pm.

Casgliad 2018

Nurturing Youth Arts in Wales

Are you passionate about the youth arts sector in Wales?

A practical two-day event with workshops and masterclasses across key areas of youth arts including diversity, engagement, mental health, and inclusion.

Casgliad 2018 is created by inspiring and leading practitioners from Wales and the UK — 20 Stories High, Cardboard Citizens, Young Identity, Operasonic, Mess up the Mess, Commonwealth Theatre, Valleys Kids, Welsh National Opera, Fio, Wales Millennium Centre and Jukebox.

Connect with the YANC network, and find out what's coming up including RawFfest, Wales Youth Arts Festival.

Casgliad 2018 welcomes youth arts practitioners, emerging artists, students and anyone interested in a vibrant future for this essential sector.

Casgliad is for everyone. Casgliad will be bilingual, wheelchair-accessible, and welcoming of any form of chair or mobility aid, as well as captioned for those who are Deaf and Hard of hearing. Contact YANC to book requirements prior to event.

Venue

Wales Millennium Centre
Bute Place, Cardiff Bay CF10 5AL

Booking

Tickets range from £5 - £60. Discounts for concessions and YANC members. Day and weekend tickets available. Book online: www.yanc.co.uk

Contact

Email: yancinfo@gmail.com

Twitter: @YANCinfo1

Facebook: Youth Arts Network Cymru – YANC

CircusWorks
The 4th Youth Circus Network

FRÂN WEN

NYE
National Youth Theatre

WNO
Welsh National Opera

Youth
Arts
Network
Cymru

