Dear hiring manager

My name is Peter Hricko and am writing to apply for the Manager position at grillsteakhouse manager. As a food service professional with over three years of training in the industry, I am excited about the possibility of working for such a beloved shop in the community. Given my talents in leadership, collaboration, and learning, I believe that this job is the ideal opportunity to utilize my abilities and develop as a management professional, while bringing value to the organization.

Not only do I love assisting my supervisors and training junior colleagues, but I also pride myself in my ability to take initiative, work independently and foster positive change. Throughout my experience in multiple Assistant Manager and food service employee positions, I have achieved several successes, including:

- Training over 5 junior employees
- Updating system tickets also website and online ordering for the restaurant

Thank you for taking the time and effort to consider my application. I look forward to hearing from you with additional information about this position or to schedule an interview. I feel confident that I could put my skills to good use at steak grill house and I would love to contribute to the company's mission and objectives. Please feel free to contact me with any questions, and thank you again.

In Kind Regards.

Peter Hricko.
