

The Family Liaison Officer is that of an investigator. Their role is to find evidence and information from the family to contribute to the investigation, preserve its integrity. The FLO also provides support and information, in a sensitive and compassionate manner, and assured confidence and trust of families.

.

