

MARKING CRITERIA and STUDENT FEEDBACK

This section details the assessment criteria. The extent to which these are demonstrated by you determines your mark. The marks available for each criterion are shown. Lecturers will use the space provided to comment on the achievement of the task(s), including those areas in which you have performed well and areas that would benefit from development/improvement.

Common Assessment Criteria Applied	Marks Available	Marks Awarded
General Comments
Overall a clear assignment with many good points, however you have not followed the assignment brief for all points such as with research and the evaluation of your website. Your report was well structured and contained the required sections but your website could have included more features to enhance it to meet the audience needs.	100	51
1. Engagement with Literature Skills
A clear and well laid out report but you have not researched academic papers on the topics requested. You have referenced correctly but not listed any statements from any research papers	20	5
2. Knowledge and Understanding Skills
You have produced a website that makes use of a range of web standard languages such as HTML with your own generated CSS. You have also used some JavaScript on the site. You have not though used bootstrap for your site so your navigation remains the same when a different sized screen is used to access your site.	15	9
3. Cognitive and Intellectual Skills
You have validated your code for HTML and CSS and explained you had no errors. You have included a screenshot for accessibility but an explanation would have enhanced this and shown your understanding. Your evaluation covers the basics but could have been in more detail in explaining how your features support the use of the website.	15	7
4. Practical Application Skills
Your site is well laid out with many links, these however are a problem as they open in the same window replacing your site, instead of opening in a new window. Your sections on the screen act as links but when clicked do not go anywhere confusing users. Overall your content is good but brief, but is easily read and is clearly laid out.	40	13
5. Transferable Skills for Life and Professional Practice
Your report is well laid out and includes all the requested sections. It is clear in its use of language and is enhanced by the clear layout you have used.	10	8
