

What have we done!

(A fictional dialogue between Adam and Eve)

(Adam) What have we done? We had it so great! Life had no worries, until the apple, we ate.

(Eve) I feel so sad, so ashamed! We ate it together, yet I alone, it seems, got the blame.

(Adam) Why did you listen to that serpent? Why did you fall for the lie? Our life was amazing, but now I can but cry.

(Eve) YOU told me I couldn't touch it, touch it and you'd die! Touch it I did and breathed still, so WHO told the lie?

(Adam) Can't you see my motive? My intent? I said that to protect you, from falling prey to a truth that were bent.

(Eve) What does it matter now? The life we had is gone. Together we acted; and together we were wrong.

(Adam) All my memories, so wonderful they were, now all mashed and misshapen, I only remember a blur.

(Eve) It's the same for me! I try to see, yet I only remember the snake and the tree.

(Adam) You know what scared me most! Hearing God and then running to hide, when He spoke, I could have cried!

(Eve) And then the Angel, standing guard at the gate. I tried to explain, but it was all too late.

(Adam and Eve) What have we done?

Background picture -<https://www.britannica.com/topic/Fall-of-Man> [Accessed 17th March 2024]

Second picture: <https://mtorah.com/tag/baal-peor/> [Accessed 17th March 2024]

Third picture: <https://www.britannica.com/topic/Fall-of-Man> [Accessed 17th March 2024]

Fourth Picture: <https://www.wsj.com/articles/when-our-eyes-were-opened-1504898137> [Accessed 17 March 2024]

Background picture: <https://www.latimes.com/entertainment-arts/story/2024-01-18/getty-lucas-cranach-adam-eve-repair-restoration-conservation> [Accessed 17 March 2024]