Comments: Q1. You show an excellent grasp of the main normative stances. However, closer attention to presentation is needed in places to ensure accuracy & precision. Further, you'd do well to provide a more in-depth discussion of ecocentrism - your treatment of this stance is a little rushed. Q2. A well presented answer, but there is some confusion with regards to Becherman's stance (and so ideas are not always presented accurately). But, overall, this is a well considered & plausible answer that focuses on the task set.
