Hey man,

as per discussed via phone the other day, I'm really happy with the direction we took with the last productions so I was thinking of starting a new song as soon as possible, it's pretty much in the same ballpark as Ni idea, I'm thinking bright sounds, acoustic guitars, synths and maybe a beat that's more chill this time around. I'll send the demo vocals asap and you let me know what you think.

Cheers, Rico
