Library Anxiety

Library anxiety is a recognised phenomenon and affects a significant number of students, (particularly those returning to Higher Education after a long time, or for the first time).

Students may experience a range of emotions when entering or using a library, which can leave them feeling:

- Anxious.
- Overwhelmed.
- Inferior or intimidated.
- Inadequate.

Services and support

A dedicated librarian for research support.

Online tutorials to improve your academic skills.

Online resource lists linking to course reading.

Support for referencing, copyright, and accessibility.

The aim of today's session.

- Discuss what type of information you need and where to find it.
- Locate and navigate the library web pages.
- Begin searching for academic information using library resources.
- Save and organise information.
- Find help and support.

Export Favourites

Export function in your [online
resource list](#).

The screenshot displays the 'Favourites' section of a library interface. The header shows '★ Favourites (22)'. Below the header, there are action buttons: 'Delete', 'Tags', 'Private note', 'Export' (highlighted with a pink box), and 'Add to list'. A selection bar indicates '1/22 item(s) selected', with a checkbox (also highlighted with a pink box) checked for the first item. The first item is 'Child development for early years students and practitioners', a Book, available at Carmarthen Campus. Below it are two articles: 'Methodology of Young Minds Mat...' and 'Our future: a Lancet commission...', both appearing in 1 list(s). The third item is 'Child well-being : understanding...'. An 'Export' modal is open in the foreground, showing 'Export to Word' and 'Bibliography style Harvard'. The modal has 'Cancel' and 'Export' buttons at the bottom.
