NOW THEY'RE TEACHING YOUR KIDS ISLAMIC ASTROLOGY!

Seat of Shame: Hereford Cathedral

Renegade Roger: As Saladin massacres our brave Christian lads fighting in the Holy Land, Barmy Bishops are indoctrinating our kids by teaching them heretical MUSLIM astrology

By Robert of Mansfield

“Heretical Hereford” we call it, said one monk at the nearby Priory at Llanthony, who spoke to the Wail on condition of anonymity. The Wail can now reveal the whole shocking story.

“It’s always been a bit bonkers up there”, he said. “My grandfather told me about the Prior of Malvern who worked with a Jew on Arabic books of the dark arts when I was a lad. And now this! Teaching kids astrology! Where will it end?”

The whistleblowing monk contacted the Wail after meeting a distraught student in the local tavern, who told him of his fears.

The student, who cannot be named for legal reasons, told him that a maverick teacher called Roger who was employed as a computus teacher started telling them about secret arts he’d discovered in Arab lands. “Computus was really boring”, the student told him, “but at least it was a good Christian art and studying it wouldn’t condemn us to the fires of hell. But then one day Master Roger came in grinning from ear to ear, and said ‘you’ll never guess what I’ve got for you today, boys!’ and pulled out some sheets of parchment.” The sheets turned out to be a textbook of the dark arts that Roger had compiled from secret books that had been brought in from heathen lands. “He told us this stuff was so powerful it let us see into the future and give us power over other people!”, the student told me, sobbing in terror at the thought. “We were forced to read about mutual receptions, lunar impediments and all sorts of dark stuff. I knew I was destined for hell just for looking at it.”

The Wail presented the damning evidence to the Bishop of Hereford, Robert Foliot. “Oh yes”, the bishop cheerily informed us, “I’ve been encouraging Roger to teach the boys all about Arabic astrology. Fascinating stuff!”
