

Presentation Structure:

Title Slide: Title of Presentation

Name of presenters

Slide 1: Introduction

- Welcome to [Your Organization's Name]
- Overview of the presentation agenda
- Introduction to the Information Systems Unit team

Slide 2: Overview of Information Systems

- Definition of the information systems concept
- Importance of information systems in modern organizations

Slide 3: Types of Information Systems

- Introduction to different types of information systems
- Brief explanation of each type

Slide 4: Focus on 1st IS for your organisation

- Definition
- Features and functions of
- Examples of in real-world scenarios

Slide 5: Focus on 2nd IS for your organisation

- Definition of ...
- Features and functions of
- Examples of ... applications in organizational settings

You can continue if you have more than 2

Slide 6: Comparing Information Systems

Slide 7: Importance of Information Systems

- Recap of the significance of information systems
- Discussion on how information systems benefit our organization specifically

Slide 8: Conclusion

- Summary of key points covered in the presentation.
- Thank you message to the visiting students from UWTSD

- Invitation for questions and further discussion

Slide 9: Q&A

- Open floor for questions from the visiting students
- Discussion and clarification on any topics covered in the presentation.

Each slide should include relevant visuals, diagrams, or examples to enhance understanding and engagement. Additionally, the presentation should be delivered in a clear and concise manner to ensure maximum comprehension by the visiting students.

NOTE: This is just a structure, you can have more slides or less if you choose to, and you can have difference headings as required.

This is just a guide.