

5 Internet Safety Tips

Don't give your personal information to anyone and be aware of the situation that you are experiencing.

protect your devices from hackers and malware attacks by installing the latest version of the operating system's

Try to create a complex password and don't share it with anyone .

Avoid suspicious links that you are not aware about it and delete them.

All the time check out the website .

check the source before making any purchases, check the website credentials and reviews that another person has posted about it.