Dioramas

week 1- Mon 27th April
Your life in lockdown

In the home

Images to inspire you.

this is all about you in your space

what does it feel like in the home during lockdown, claustrophobic, lonely, are you on your own….

or are you with your family?

with mum and dad….

with grandparents….

do you have lots of siblings?...

eBay

are you living with your boyfriend alone…..

has the lockdown made you feel afraid ?

has life become chaotic?....

have you got younger siblings being home schooled?

is it all a bit mad at home?....

Is there a view from your window?

streets and back alleys?

Have you a view of a landscape…..

Problems are like sticker burrs.
They poke.
They prick.
They nag.

all you need is a box, you can make your own…

cardboard or wooden

Sieger, Hanne's Liebling

or a tin….

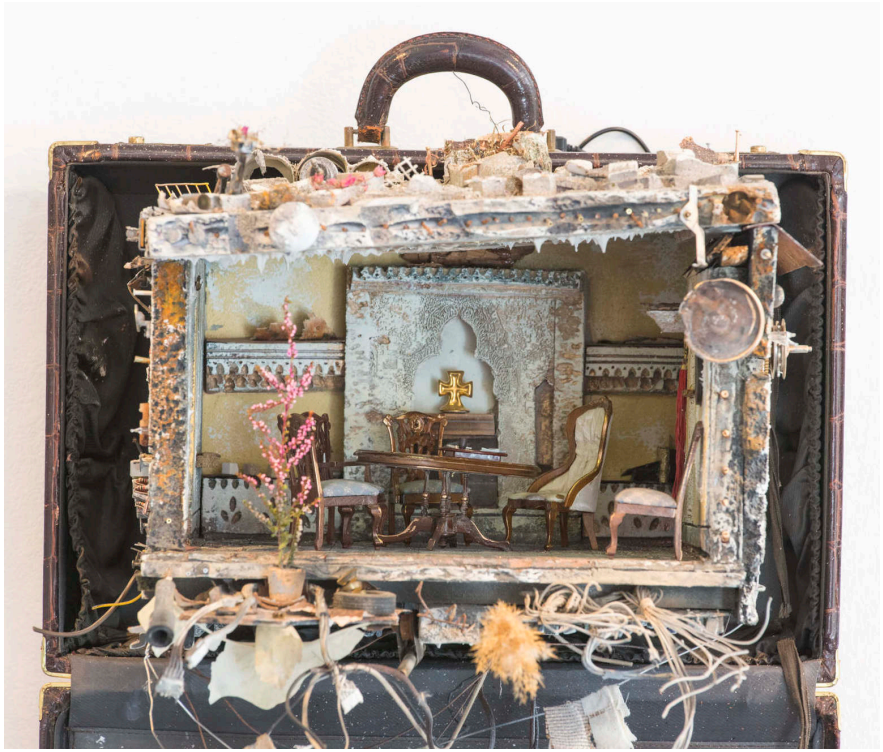

a matchbox interior, if you want to work in miniature…..

an old TV case…

there are so many things you could choose- the bottom of a plastic bottle, a glass an old shoe you can use your imagination!!!

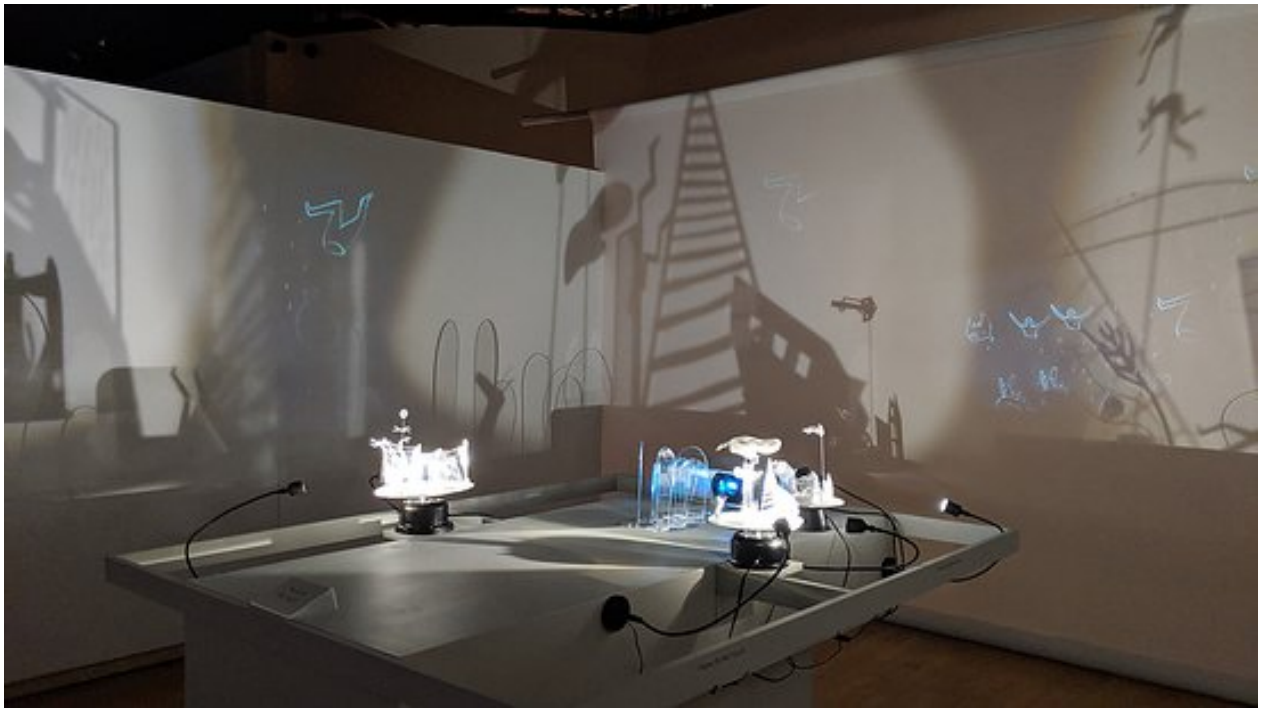

you can use a peephole…

Diorama week 2- Mon 4th May

Your life in lockdown

Where would you like to be?

Images to inspire you.

with wildlife or on a swing….

in a fantasy world as a miniature being….

in a winter wonderland….

in a historical context….

even in a toothbrush shower!!!!!

As you can see you can use just about anything

to make these dioramas

have some fun!!!

and be imaginative and

be creative

make them as simple or as complicated as you like
