Warehouse operations assistant

Dear hiring manager,

I am writing to apply for the warehouse operative position within your company. I am hardworking and reliable individual with experience working as a warehouse packer in a tiktok shop fulfilment environment in Birmingham

My responsibility included picking customer orders checking items for quality and quantity packing products securely printing shipping labels preparing orders for dispatch and using hand held scanners to report damage and missing stocks i consistently worked toward daily packaging targets and ensured orders were completed accurately and on time.

I have GCSEs including business studies which has helped me develop strong teamwork communication organization and problem solving skills. I am self motivated able to work independently or as a part of the team and committed to maintaining high standards in a fast paced warehouse environment.

I am eager to contribute to your warehouse team and would welcome the opportunity to support your operation.

Your sincerely
