INTRODUCTION

This handbook provides you with detailed information about your course, or Programme of Study, and about the modules that will be offered for study at Level 5 in the academic year 2019-2020.

The University has made every effort to make the information as full and as accurate as possible, but you should note that minor changes in the organisation of modules between the planning stage and the actual teaching are inevitable. We shall try to keep any such changes to a minimum, and you will receive plenty of advance warning in the event of any alteration. We would also be grateful if you would let us know about any changes that you think might be helpful if introduced into future handbooks.

The CIPD Level 5 Diploma in Applied HR, is a Higher Apprenticeship qualification in HR Management. It is equivalent to the second year of a university degree in the UK.

The Higher Apprenticeship will enable apprentices to develop knowledge and skills in human resource management, while being employed and earning a salary. Employers will have a chance to expand their human resource function and better support their most valuable asset: their people.

The apprenticeship takes two years to complete with apprentices dividing their time between:

- undertaking their role
- being taught on-the-job (e.g. being trained by a manager)
- being taught off-the-job (e.g. attending UWTSD).

On successful completion of the CIPD's Level 5 Diploma in Applied Human Resources candidates are entitled to use the designation AssocCIPD after their name.

CIPD professional membership is recognised globally by employers and could help increase earning potential. The apprenticeship will ensure the student receives on the job training whilst studying so they will acquire the relevant experience and knowledge at the same time; something not all students are fortunate enough to gain.

FEEDBACK

Feedback on your programme of study and modules is welcome and important and will help us to improve and enhance your learning experience. You can give feedback in a number of ways: through the student representative for your programme of study, through module evaluation questionnaires, through informal meetings with your personal tutor, teaching staff, or Programme Manager, through focus groups to gain feedback from students on particular issues, or through the Students' Union. If there are issues, then it is important that you share these with us so that we can address them. Your opinion is valued.

PROGRAMMES OF STUDY AND PROGRAMME MANAGERS

This handbook covers the following Programmes of Study. The name and contact details of the Programme Manager are also listed below.

Programme of Study	Programme Manager	Tel. No.	E-mail
CIPD Diploma in Applied Human Resources	Julie Thomas	01792 481000 ext 3233	julie.thomas@uwtsd.ac.uk

SUPPORT DURING YOUR STUDIES

A member of academic staff will be identified at the beginning of the academic year to act as a point of first contact for support issues. Further support can also be accessed through the Student Services department.

CIPD MODERATOR

All taught Programmes of Study which lead to a CIPD qualification are examined by a CIPD appointed moderator. The principal purposes of the external moderator system are to ensure that:

- the standard of each award is maintained at the appropriate level;
- the standards of student performance are comparable with standards on similar programmes or subjects in other UK institutions with which they are familiar;
- the processes for assessment and the determination of awards are sound and fairly conducted.

Students may request a copy of the previous year's Moderators Report for their programme of study by contacting the Programme Manager.

The current CIPD Moderator for this Programme of Study is:

Pamela Williams

Please note that students are not permitted to make direct contact with the CIPD Moderator.

ACADEMIC YEAR 2019/2020

The academic year 2019/2020 will be divided up as follows:

Induction	21/04/2020
Term Dates	20/4/2020-10/7/2020

INFORMATION ABOUT YOU AND YOUR PROGRAMME OF STUDY

Information about you and your programme of study is held by the University on a central Student Record System managed by the University Registry. It is essential that the University Registry has an accurate record of your personal details at all times. It is equally important to ensure that you are enrolled on the correct Programme of Study and on the correct modules. Failure to inform the Registry of any changes in this respect can result in a range of problems including:

- delays in obtaining your student loan;
- failure to contact you in an emergency;
- clashes on your examination timetable;
- not being able to borrow materials from the Library and Learning Resources; and
- not being able to use the Information Technology services.

Please take time to check the enrolment information provided by the University Registry and be sure to notify the Registry of any errors or changes.

CIPD Membership

Once you have registered with UWTSD, you will join the CIPD as Student member. As well as increasing your professional credibility with employers, CIPD membership will also give you exclusive member-only access to the latest HR and L&D resources, development tools, networking opportunities and discounts. Plus continuing your membership beyond your studies will ensure your progression to achieving professional membership of the CIPD.

On successful completion of the qualification, candidates will automatically gain Associate professional membership and be able to use the designation AssocCIPD.

Internal verification of CIPD study centre standards

A critical element of centre internal quality assurance is internal verification. The internal verification framework assures the quality of the assessment standards and evaluates the achievement of learning outcomes for CIPD qualifications administered through our study centre. As a CIPD study centre we ensure a range of internal verifiers (IVs) supported by a lead IV engage in the full range of IV duties. In this case the Programme Manager takes the lead IV responsibility for conducting internal standardisation of assessment practice on the Intermediate Diploma in Applied HRM. The sampling strategy provides for IV activity in all of the 16 modules delivered, ensuring all lecturer assessment is checked, and is inclusive of work from all students who are active on the year programme. This ensures a representative sample of assessment decisions made by all individuals with assessment responsibilities is achieved, with all students having work checked.

Internal verification focuses on assessment processes, to ensure that assessment processes and systems used by assessors meet CIPD requirements. The IV checks that assessment methods applied by all lecturers assessing work are:

- valid – relevant to the learning outcomes and assessment criteria which are being assessed
- reliable – consistently achieving the same results with same/similar group of candidates
- fair – ensuring everyone has an equal chance of receiving accurate assessment
- safe – including physical and psychological safety approved by CIPD.

DISCLOSURE AND BARRING SERVICE (DBS) – ENHANCED

If your programme involves you coming into contact with children or vulnerable adults, you will be required to undertake a DBS check (Enhanced). Further details will be provided by the University Registry or Programme Manager.

As part of each programme's procedures relating to DBS, continuing students will normally be required to inform their Programme Manager immediately of any change to their criminal convictions' status.

You will also be asked to complete a formal self-declaration during the enrolment period at the beginning of the academic year, which confirms your criminal conviction status. This declaration will be kept within Registry.

MODULAR TERMINOLOGY

Level (of Study):

A level is assigned to each module to define the standard of its academic demand in line with the National Qualifications Framework which incorporates both Further Education and Higher Education.

The level is not necessarily synonymous with a year, though very often Level 4 will be the first year of a Programme of Study, Level 5 will be the second year, and Level 6 will be the third year. The basic characteristics of the relevant levels of study are outlined by the Welsh Assembly government and available on their website:

<https://gov.wales/sites/default/files/publications/2018-02/level-descriptors.pdf>

ASSESSMENT

At the start of each module, tutors will provide on Moodle full details of the means by which you will be assessed in that module. This will include a full assessment brief and guidelines on the criteria that will be used for marking your work as well as clear information about when the assessments are due and the turn-around feedback time for the assessments. It will also detail how you will be able to discuss the feedback on your work and your performance and what to do if you have any questions.

All assessed written coursework needs to be submitted in electronic copy via Turnitin; alternative instructions will be provided by the Programme Manager for any forms of coursework that cannot be submitted via Turnitin.

The University offers programmes in both English and Welsh. The normal expectation is that you will be assessed in the same language in which the programme or modules are delivered. If you have been taught in English and wish to be assessed in Welsh, or vice versa, you should consult your Programme Manager about the options available to you.

You will receive confirmation of your assessment marks at the end of the programme. Any marks released prior to formal approval by the Progression / Award Examining Board are provisional.

Extenuating Circumstances

If you believe that there are extenuating circumstances which may have adversely affected your ability to complete coursework or examinations, you should follow the University's procedures for Extenuating Circumstances for Taught Provision, which can be found on the University's website:

<http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/academic-office/procedures-for-academic-appeals-complaints-and-other-student-cases/>

Additional needs in terms of assessment

If you have any additional needs in terms of assessment, it is your responsibility to liaise with Student Services regarding those needs at the start of the academic year, so that a Statement of Compensatory Measures can be drafted in line with the University's procedures for assessment of students with additional needs.

<http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/services-for-disabled-students/>

Academic Appeals

Information about how to appeal is provided in the 'Academic Appeal Procedure' in Chapter 13 of the Academic Quality Handbook, and in supporting documentation published on the Academic Office section on the University's website:

<http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/academic-office/procedures-for-academic-appeals-complaints-and-other-student-cases/>

Additional advice is available from the Students' Union. It is very important that you note carefully the grounds on which appeals may be made and submit your appeal on the appropriate form because incomplete or ineligible appeals cannot be processed.

Assessment Regulations

The rules and regulations that govern the assessment of your Programme of Study are available in Chapters 6 and 7 of the University's Academic Quality Handbook, a copy of which is available on the Academic Office section of the website:

<http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/academic-office/academic-quality-handbook/>

Responsibilities of students in relation to the assessment process

As noted in section 7.3 (5) of Chapter 7 of the Academic Quality Handbook, you are responsible for ensuring that:

- i) You are correctly enrolled on their programme of study (including re-enrolment for each academic year after initial enrolment).
- ii) You read and understand the information provided about how you will be assessed, how your final award will be determined, and the action to take in the event that they experience difficulties relating to assessment.
- iii) You attempt every assessment component of a module.
- iv) You attend examinations and other assessment events, including re-examination and re-assessment events, as required; and that you are available to attend oral examinations if required to do so within the published dates of terms or semesters, or other date notified to them in advance.
- v) You submit work for assessment as required and in accordance with the required format and deadline.
- vi) You inform your Programme Manager or Student Services of any disability or long-term impairment which might require special provisions for assessment.
- vii) You familiarise themselves with the University's definition of unfair practice and undertake assessments in a manner that does not attempt to gain unfair advantage.
- viii) You follow the prescribed procedures in the event that you experience extenuating circumstances or wish to appeal against the decision of an Examining Board.
- ix) You keep a copy of work presented for assessment wherever feasible.
- x) You make your work available for sampling for external examining purposes and for archiving.

VIRTUAL LEARNING ENVIRONMENT (VLE)

Moodle is the University's Virtual Learning Environment (VLE). The VLE is used to support learning and teaching. It can be accessed by enrolled students from anywhere in the world using the internet and a web browser.

Some of Moodle's features allow students to:

- Access course materials
- Facilitate communication between students and tutors
- Support group tasks
- Take online assessments with automatic marking and feedback facilities

Moodle can be used for administration tasks such as:

- Displaying announcements e.g. lecture venue changed
- Submission of assignments electronically
- Administration of online surveys, such as module questionnaires

How to Access:

You can access Moodle in 3 different ways:

1. From MyDay
Access your MyDay dashboard either by logging into a campus PC and opening Internet Explorer, or accessing <http://myday.uwtsd.ac.uk> from any browser on an internet-connected device. Click on the Moodle tile.
2. From the University Website
Navigate to <http://uwtsd.ac.uk> and select Quick Links (top left side of screen) and then Moodle.
3. URL Input
Open any browser on an internet-connected device and navigate to <http://moodle.uwtsd.ac.uk>

Log in using your Network username and password which are the same used to access campus PC.

If you are missing courses/modules in the My Courses block please contact your lecturers to ask if they use Moodle. Please note it can take 24hrs for enrolment data to feed into Moodle. If you have problems finding resources (timetables, lecture notes, assignment briefs etc.) please contact the lecturer that delivers the course/module.

For any technical issues or error messages contact the IT Service Desk via:

Web: <https://webhelp.uwtsd.ac.uk>

Tel: 0300 500 5055

Or email: ITServiceDesk@uwtsd.ac.uk

In any correspondence please include your name and username (your student number) together with details of your issue.

ASSESSMENT FEEDBACK VIA TURNITIN

For feedback provided through Turnitin, there are two areas to get your feedback: written feedback, and the marking rubric.

Written feedback will comment on the overall work.

The marking rubric will focus on how the piece of work meets the criteria listed in the relevant rubric.

The marking rubric does not give a mathematically calculated result based on the sum of individual components, but is used holistically to help determine the mark.

Written Feedback and the Marking Rubric can be found by clicking the buttons as shown when you view your submitted assignment in Turnitin.

(1) CIPD Diploma in Applied Human Resources

The Level 5 Diploma in Applied Human Resources is comprised of 16 modules (units), totalling 90 credits (QCF), delivered over 2 years. The units are grouped as follows:

No. of units	Module type	Credits
5	Core units	26
6	Group A - knowledge based units	24
5	Group B - competence based units	40

The length of the block of teaching per unit will depend on the number of CIPD specific credits afforded to the unit. Details of the units are supplied later on in the handbook, and will be accessible on Moodle.

Guided Learning Hours

The CIPD guided learning hours for this programme of study is 450 hours:

250 hours to cover the core units and Group A optional units.

200 hours to cover the Group B optional units

This programme will be delivered monthly with additional skills workshops throughout the year to meet these requirements.

Students will be expected to supplement the classroom contact hours with self-directed learning to cover reading and the preparation of assessment evidence.

CIPD-Specific Assessment Arrangements

Formative assessment is embedded throughout the course to encourage self-development, with summative assessment at the end of each unit as recommended by the CIPD. Details of the assessment will be released by the unit tutor at the beginning of the unit delivery. The range of assessment methods utilised ensures that all the learning outcomes and assessment criteria are met in a way that enhances the student's learning experience. They should allow candidates to demonstrate a clear grasp of the concepts and their ability to link theory to practice and to communicate clearly in the HR field at the appropriate level. These include assignments, case studies, group and individual presentations, blogs, work-related activities and reports. Assessment of the group B units will be via portfolios of evidence gathered in the workplace.

Module (Unit) details are correct on 1 April 2020 and will not normally be changed during the year. In the unlikely event of the School having to make changes to these details during the year, you will be notified in writing. Module descriptors are presented in the accompanying Module Directory document, and will also be made available on the Moodle page for the programme.

UNIVERSITY ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance is an important indicator of your engagement with and success in your studies. All students are therefore required to attend all scheduled classes and tutorials and Institutes will record individual academic attendance. It is important that:

- you familiarise yourself with the attendance policy relevant to you (see <https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/academic-office/other-forms-and-policies/>);
- you are fully aware of procedures to follow in case of unexpected absences.
- you are aware that disciplinary action will be taken for any sustained periods of unauthorised absence.

This is particularly important for international students with a UKVI Tier 4 Visa. Failure to adhere to the requirements and conditions of the Attendance Policy will lead to withdrawal from your programme and the University will also inform the UKVI to withdraw your Tier 4 visa sponsorship.

Appeal against withdrawal due to poor attendance – Information on how to appeal against withdrawal due to poor attendance is provided on the University's website (<http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/academic-office/procedures-for-academic-appeals-complaints-and-other-student-cases/>).

CODES OF CONDUCT

The University is committed to providing all students with a safe and inclusive learning environment where all students have the potential to succeed to the best of their ability.

The University expects all students to abide by the Student Code of Conduct (see <https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/studentcharter/>).

The University also has Fitness to Study and Fitness to Practise Policies (see <https://uowtsd.sharepoint.com/student-info/SitePages/Regulations.aspx>).

In addition, many programmes have a professional code of conduct that you are expected to adhere to. Your Programme Manager will provide you with appropriate details.

ABOUT UNFAIR PRACTICE AND PLAGIARISM

The University defines unfair practice as ‘any act, intentional or otherwise, whereby a person may obtain for himself/herself or for another, an unpermitted advantage...’. Committing unfair practice in assessment is one of the most serious offences in academic life, and its consequences can be severe. It undermines the integrity of scholarship, research, and of the examination and assessment process.

It is very important to understand that it is no defence to claim that unfair practice has been committed unintentionally, accidentally, due to extenuating circumstances or a long-term impairment (irrespective of whether or not these circumstances or long-term impairment have been acknowledged by the University).

Plagiarism is one type of unfair practice. Plagiarism is passing off, or attempting to pass off, another’s work as your own. It includes copying the words, ideas, images or research results of another without acknowledgement, whether those words etc. are published or unpublished. It is plagiarism, for example, to copy the work of another student, of a member of staff or a published article without crediting the author. Persons who allow their work to be plagiarised are also guilty.

It should be noted that re-submitting work that has already been submitted for a different assessment task without noting that this is the case is also regarded as plagiarism (and is called self-plagiarism) and will be treated as such.

Plagiarism is one of the worst offences in academic life, and its consequences can be severe. It undermines the integrity of scholarship, research, and of the examination and assessment process. The guidance that follows explains what is meant by plagiarism, describes the University’s regulations for dealing with it, and provides help in avoiding it.

When enrolling as a student at the University of Wales Trinity Saint David you have consented to your work being scrutinised both electronically and in person to check for cases of plagiarism. Normally, your work will be submitted electronically via Moodle.

For submissions outside of the Moodle platform, it is equally important that you reference your sources accurately. In some cases, you will be expected to submit both hard and electronic copies, which can be checked against the database of the UK Higher Education Plagiarism Detection Service. For handwritten, portfolio and process workbook submissions check with your module tutor if you are in any doubt about whether you have infringed the regulations. They are here to assist you; ensure that you take advantage of their expertise.

Plagiarism: Regulations, Procedure and Penalties

Full details of the University’s procedures and penalties for dealing with issues of plagiarism can be found in Chapter 13 of the Academic Quality Handbook, which can be seen on the University website or obtained from the Institute Offices. These details are also summarised in the University Regulations – Undergraduate Student Guide which is published on the Academic Office section on the University’s website:

<http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/academic-office/university-regulations-student-guide/>

Avoiding Plagiarism

Coursework, dissertations, or creative work are meant to be your own original work. Obviously you will use the work of others. Not only is this inevitable, it is expected. All scholarship builds on the work of others. The important thing to remember is always to acknowledge your sources. The University recognises four referencing styles:

APA, Harvard, IEEE and MHRA and provides a handbook for each of these styles. For your programme of study, you should be using Harvard Referencing. The handbooks can be found online: <https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/library/infoskills/referencing-handbooks/> or in print from the Library and Learning Resources. A Referencing Essentials session will be provided during the first term of your first year but as a general rule of thumb observe the following:

- Anything that is copied or quoted from another source, including electronic sources such as the internet, must be in quotation marks and attributed to the original author. This may be in the body of the text or as a footnote, depending on which Referencing style you are asked to use.
- Paraphrasing or summarising the work of others involves putting their ideas into your words. This is fine, but again, acknowledge your source.
- Where you are generally indebted for your ideas to one or two main sources, this can be a bit trickier. If the ideas or the way they are presented come from one or two sources, make this clear. Do the same if they come from lectures. It is important not to claim originality where it does not exist but to indicate in general where the information comes from.
- Full citations in timed unseen examinations are obviously not expected, but you should indicate general indebtedness and always credit any quotations you have managed to remember.

The golden rule is; 'if in doubt, provide references' and your Referencing Handbook will provide you with specific guidance to help you to do this correctly. For support, contact your tutor or Academic Liaison Librarian. There are no penalties for asking for advice and guidance; there are severe penalties for plagiarism and failure to reference means your work could be considered to be plagiarised.

Other types of Unfair Practice

There are other types of unfair practice, including, but not limited to producing work as a group where it is an individual task (called collusion), fabricating data or making false claims to have carried out research, using the service of an essay bank/essay mill, having an unauthorised source of information in an examination, prohibited communication during an examination. The same regulations, procedures and penalties apply to all types of unfair practice.

LIBRARY AND LEARNING RESOURCES

Library and Learning Resources (LLR) supports the learning, teaching and research activities of staff and students across the University with libraries at Carmarthen, Lampeter, London and Swansea and includes online resources, social learning spaces, special collections and archives.

The library prioritises the purchase of e-books over print wherever possible and loan periods are regularly reviewed by the library to ensure that they are appropriate and provide equitable access to resources. It is expected that at least all Essential reading list items are available from the library. The LLR follows a Fairer Fines policy which means students are only fined on items if they are in heavy demand or requested by another library user.

The LLR provides a Need More? service which aims to provide a one stop shop for all learning resource needs, for example, if a book, journal or thesis is needed which is not in the library stock then it may be purchased or borrowed from another library. Further information can be found here: <http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/library/library-guide/need-more/>.

Learning Spaces

There are six libraries across the Carmarthen, Lampeter, London and Swansea campuses. As well as collections, the library provides a variety of modern and flexible learning spaces, reflecting different styles of working e.g. group study spaces and quiet areas, as well as IT facilities, wireless internet, photocopying and printing facilities and excellent customer service.

Online Library

The LLR offers a wide range of printed and electronic resources including an extensive collection of online e-journals and e-books that are available 24/7 providing access to scholarly journals, newspapers, company reports and reference material. The library catalogue searches the whole range of print and online library materials and gives access to your library account from anywhere.

InfoSkills

All students are provided with a library tour, a Basic Skills session and a Referencing Essentials session in the first few weeks at the University. Academic Liaison Librarians will help students to develop the skills required to find, use and evaluate information sources within their subject areas. Numerous sessions are offered throughout the year to help students develop their Information Skills further to support their academic success and employability. These include sessions on identifying fake news, using statistics, commercial awareness, managing the information about them that is available online and accessing information sources in accessible formats. The LLR operates an open door policy which enables students to ask for help and advice on the information resources available throughout the academic year. Academic Liaison Librarians are welcomed to Staff / Student Committees, and also attend other relevant Institute meetings where invited, including the Institute Board. For further information on InfoSkills provision go to: <https://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/library/infoskills/>

Special Collections and Archives

The Library is also home to the Special Collections of UWTSd, including the University's oldest printed books, manuscripts and archives. The Special Collections include over 35,000 printed works, 8 medieval manuscripts, around 100 post medieval manuscripts, and 69 incunables. Material from the Archives includes the institutional archive of St David's College, later The University of Wales, Lampeter, and Trinity College Carmarthen, both constituent members of the University of Wales Trinity Saint David. Students are encouraged to use these wonderful resources as part of their studies, regardless of discipline. Visits and workshops are often arranged within the purpose-built reading rooms in the Lampeter campus library and there is a regular programme of exhibitions across the campuses and online.

For recent service developments, updates and contact information please visit the University Library website at <http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/library/>. Please also follow the Library and Learning Resources on Facebook, Instagram or Twitter for up-to-date news, service developments and information on new services and resources: @UWTSdLib

STUDENT SERVICES

A professional support service providing high quality information, advice, guidance, practical and emotional support to enable all students to reach their full potential. Support available includes the Careers Service, Financial Support, Learning Support, Counselling Service and support for students from a care background. For further details see <http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/student-services/>.

STUDY SKILLS

All students have access to study skills support to assist them in their studies. Details of provision are available from the Student Services offices on each campus and at <http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/study-skills/>.

Topics covered include:

- Developing effective study strategies
- Planning and writing assignments
- Preparing presentations
- Planning for seminars
- Preparing for exams

Drop-in study skills sessions and 1:1 appointments are available on the Carmarthen, Lampeter and Swansea campuses during term time – no appointment necessary. Distance learning students are also able to access the Study Skills Distance service using e-mail, telephone or Skype. Please see the Student Services study skills webpages for further details: <http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/study-skills/>.

COMPLAINTS

You have a right to make a complaint about any specific concern about the provision of your Programme of Study or a related academic service. Full details of the complaints process can be found in the 'Procedure for Student Complaints' in Chapter 13 of the Academic Quality Handbook and in supporting documentation published on the Academic Office section on the University's website: <http://www.uwtsd.ac.uk/academic-office/procedures-for-academic-appeals-complaints-and-other-student-cases/>
