

Magistrates are

Magistrates are trained and are volunteer members of the local community.

Who make decisions on family and criminal cases

They are individuals from all walks of life