

Economical influence – 71% of businesses and professional services decreasing and with 63% has dropped the level of financial services.

Political influence – increased confidence toward government with 32% in social life of people and business sector.

Business influence – worst period for all the business with 84% industry disruption but good for the innovations, online trade and IT sector with 96% more opportunities for the public services.

Educational influence – really unexpected needs for changes and decrease in education with 60% less effectivity and new channels of educational communication

Social and healthcare influence – increase the influence of the NHS and government in public life and care for people with financial and institutional support, vaccine protecting activity and successful plan to protect and support.

In general the expected recovery shows that the hard affected business part still need 12 months to recover, which is 16%, not so bad compare to the average 22% that are close for a quick start between 3-6 months to get well, unless 15% can be stable for 1-3 months.

Tatiana Todorova
Cloud computing
SN: 2023692
L-4/T-2