Dear Hiring Manager, I am writing to apply for the Delivery Postie with Driving position at Royal Mail in Birmingham. I am a motivated and reliable individual with a full UK driving licence and strong physical fitness, which makes me well suited to the demands of this role. I am comfortable working in fast-paced environments and understand the importance of timekeeping, organisation, and safety when handling deliveries. I have a strong work ethic and a positive attitude towards responsibility. I am able to follow instructions accurately, work independently when required, and also contribute effectively as part of a team. My reliability and willingness to learn will allow me to adapt quickly and support the high standards expected by Royal Mail. I am available for immediate start and flexible to work shifts including weekends. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to your team. Yours sincerely,

David Bahica
