INTRODUCTION

This Module Directory includes all the modules for Level 4 within the Academic Discipline of Art & Media (WISA) in the academic year 2024-2025.

This directory accompanies the Programme of Study Handbook, which will provide you with details of which modules you will be studying for your programme this year in the 'Programme of Study' section. This directory may include modules that are running on other programmes of study within your Academic Discipline/Institute. If you require assistance in identifying the modules for your programme of study, please contact the Programme Manager (whose name and contact details are provided in the accompanying Programme of Study Handbook), or the relevant Institute Office.

The University has made every effort to make the information as full and as accurate as possible, but you should note that minor changes in the organisation of modules between the planning stage and the actual teaching are inevitable. We shall try to keep any such changes to a minimum, and you will receive plenty of advance warning in the event of any alteration. We would also be grateful if you would let us know about any changes that you think might be helpful if introduced into future handbooks.

AIM(S)

- To introduce students to creative design craft processes to encourage and develop visual and intellectual explorations and responses to a range of media and disciplines.
- To enable the student to develop observational and practical skills, cultivate perceptual inquisitiveness and build a sustained sense of visual language in making.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate the ability to research, record and evaluate visual, spatial and perceptual information and evidence the generation of ideas independently and / or collaboratively in response to a set brief or activity.
- Demonstrate the ability to select and apply a range of materials, techniques and processes and to reflect upon their effectiveness and environmental impact.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Apply drawing as research
- Drawing with materials and mixed media
- Design and making methods
- Concept development
- Design development
- Research and analysis of contextual application
- Selection of appropriate materials and techniques
- Presentation skills.
- Evaluation of environmental impact

LEARNING AND TEACHING STRATEGY

This module introduces students to the fundamentals of drawing, visual communication and design methods. Through structured tasks, students will learn different ways of visually communicating their research, ideas and design developments. Within these exercises students will be introduced to a range of materials and techniques appropriate to design crafts and will be encouraged to work both two dimensionally and three dimensionally.

Through a series of workshop demonstrations, lectures and seminar groups as well as individual tutorials, the students gain knowledge and confidence in a range of approaches to designing and making. Students will be encouraged to reflect upon and evaluate the impact of their activities.

STRATEGAETH DYSGU AC ADDYSGU

Mae'r modwl hwn yn cyflwyno myfyrwyr i hanfodion lluniadu, cyfathrebu gweledol a dulliau dylunio. Trwy dasgau strwythuredig, bydd myfyrwyr yn dysgu gwahanol ffyrdd o gyfleu eu hymchwil, eu syniadau a'u datblygiadau dylunio'n weledol. O fewn yr ymarferion hyn cyflwynir myfyrwyr i ystod o ddeunyddiau a thechnegau sy'n briodol i grefftau dylunio ac fe'u hanogir i weithio mewn dau ddimensiwn a thri dimensiwn.

Drwy gyfres o arddangosiadau gweithdy, darlithoedd a grwpiau seminar yn ogystal â thiworialau unigol, bydd y myfyrwyr yn ennill gwybodaeth a hyder mewn ystod o ddulliau o ran dylunio a gwneud. Anogir myfyrwyr i werthuso ac adfyfrio ar effaith eu gweithgareddau.

AIM(S)

- To broaden students' research capabilities and develop visual language and conceptual thinking in response to a set brief.
- To develop problem solving skills through the process of comprehension, investigation, exploration and practical interaction with materials, techniques and processes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate the development of ideas through to constructed outcomes evidencing ability to select and use appropriate materials and processes.
- Demonstrate critical awareness of the context and impact of their work at all levels and evidence developed conceptual awareness and reflective skills in practice.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Contextualised concept development
- Drawing and recording strategies
- Development and translation of ideas from 2D to 3D (analogue and digital)
- Design development and realisation
- Presentation formats
- Social, economic and environmental impact

LEARNING AND TEACHING STRATEGY

This module builds on the Design & Make 1 module and challenges the student's ability to design and make through a set brief that requires conceptual awareness and critical thinking. With emphasis on an individual response the student starts to take responsibility for the selection of appropriate methods of visual communication and design methods.

Lectures, seminar groups, tutorials and workshop demonstrations give a range of teaching and learning opportunities, with the majority of the contact time dedicated to practical tasks.

The study time for the module is divided as follows:

Activity type	Hours	Percentage
Scheduled learning	48	24%
Independent learning	152	76%

TITLE: Introduction to Casting
DATED: 26/04/2018

LEVEL: 4
CREDITS: 20

JACS CODE: W200

AIM(S)

- To engage in the practical and conceptual enquiry into casting processes and gain knowledge and skills in mould-making and casting for the creation of 3D objects through set projects.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate skills and knowledge of mould-making and casting in a range of materials.
- Evidence research, ideas and critical thinking through practical application and experimentation.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Basic mould making for glass, ceramics and other materials
- Working with wax and lost wax casting techniques
- Slip casting ceramics and introduction to glazing
- Introduction to and demonstration of digital processes that can be combined with casting techniques.
- Evaluation of environmental impact

LEARNING AND TEACHING STRATEGY

This module introduces the students to mould making and casting as a fundamental technique for the creation of 3D objects within the field of design crafts. It introduces students to the potential of working with multiples and the replication of form. The majority of the teaching contact time will be spent in practical workshop sessions, with making and material experimentation at the core of this module. Students are encouraged to critically think through practical applications, commercial viability and environmental impacts and will be challenged to question the notion of batch / multiple production within their work.

The study time for the module is divided as follows:

AIM(S)

- To develop student's skills for independent study and life-long learning, which will form the foundations for successful completion of their degree programme and support future employment opportunities.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Demonstrate the foundational skills required to be a resilient and healthy independent learner.
- Practise the principles of learning agility
- Use suitable technology to support and enhance their learning experience within the discipline area

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Time management, reading, writing, referencing and plagiarism, searching for and evaluating sources of information, working online.
- Critical thinking: issues concerning knowledge, belief, and doubt.
- Critical writing: synthesis, paraphrasing and creating an informed argument, avoiding plagiarism.
- Reflection and self-reflection.
- Identity and sense of place; including values, culture and intercultural awareness, heritage, diversity and inclusion and, multilingualism.
- Skills for a range of assessment modes, including blogs, vlogs, video, presentations, performances, posters, exams and written coursework.
- Skills and attitudes which underpin resilience, health, wellbeing and learning agility; the role of spirit, mind, emotions and body.

AIM(S)

- To develop student's awareness and appreciation of contemporary challenges relevant to the discipline facing individuals, organisations, communities and society, from a local, national and global perspective.
- To develop creative problem-solvers through the application of knowledge to real-world problems.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Identify and evaluate historical and contemporary issues and their impact on today's global society.
- Apply appropriate collaborative working practices to manage conflict and support effective decision making.
- Implement Design Thinking techniques to investigate problems in order to generate and evaluate solutions.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Visions of the Future including digital transformation 4.0.
- How history, legislation and policy shape the world we live.
- Contemporary global issues, e.g. responsible stewardship, diversity, inclusion, ethics, culture and intercultural awareness.
- 'Wicked problems': the challenge of difficult or impossible problems where the affecting variables are not known or quantifiable.
- Design Thinking to investigate, define, propose and evaluate problem solutions.
- Recognising and overcoming cognitive bias.
- Decision making frameworks and techniques.
- Recognising individual differences and the role of emotional intelligence in the management of conflict.
- The role of diplomacy, persuasion and negotiation in effective collaboration.
- The significance of interdisciplinary thinking in finding effective solutions to problems.
- The role of ethics in identifying solutions.

- Collective decision-making.
- The power of raising awareness

AIM(S)

- To recognise and respond to a specific visual and material culture, broadening the awareness of context and suitability of media, making and reflective decision-making.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Evaluate the appropriateness of the differing approaches to specific and primary visual concepts.
- Broaden the application of a visual narrative and understanding of the skills for pattern, textiles and surface needed to realise design ideas.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Drawing for context
- Developing observational skills
- Advanced exploration of processes and skills in making
- Bringing drawing styles together, exploring a visual narrative
- Implementation of research in relation to context
- Advanced research journal practice, looking wider and further
- Broadening the choice and use of media in drawing
- Experimental drawing development
- Drawing through digital software
- Image making in printed textile

AIM(S)

- To introduce the design process through research journal skills; through the development of ideas; through reference to context; to designing and making, in order to explore a personal direction.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Develop ideas through to outcomes that confirm the student's ability to generate ideas in response to set briefs and/or as self-initiated activity.
- Demonstrate the ability to translate a range of media, new material processes and approaches into applied ideas, making connections between intention, process, outcome and context.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Drawing and its application.
- Research and analysis of contextual application.
- Concept development.
- Applied process activities that respond to the requirements of a brief.
- Technologies in Surface Pattern Design practice.
- Printed textiles
- Preparation of artwork for print
- Fibre identification
- Dyes, chemicals and equipment

Credits	20
Pre-Requisites	None

AIM(S)

- To extend and develop creative practice and material processes, investigating wider design thinking, mapping a clear route between idea and application to a pathway context.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- Develop ideas through to outcomes that confirm the ability to select and use appropriate materials, processes and environments that address context.
- Evidence through practical applications how both convergent and divergent thinking are employed within the complete design process showing understanding of quality standards, attention to detail and the importance of originality and innovation.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Design development and translation of drawing and visuals
- Development of narrative, concept and context
- Creating, finding and developing motif
- Composition, scale, & placement of pattern using hand and digital techniques
- Understanding pattern: repeat, scale & placement within context
- Drafting designs at scale and in repeat
- Enhanced technologies and practices in Surface Pattern Design
- Printed textile process for effect and impact
- Advanced colouration of substrates and awareness of dye, print and process
- Screen printing in repeat and enlarged scale
- Advanced photoshop skills and design development
- Digital colourways and palette making
- Creating repeat designs in photoshop
- Using photoshop for digital visualisations in context

- Making and production methods appropriate to context
- Preparing designs to specification for the creative industries
- Presentation and design realisation

AIM(S)

- To develop the student's digital and material skills for independent study and life-long learning, forming the foundations for the successful completion of their degree programme whilst supporting future employment opportunities in the multidisciplinary area of surface pattern and textiles design (and beyond.)

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- demonstrate the foundational digital and material skills required to be an organised and resilient independent learner, and designer of the future;
- use suitable materials and technology to support and enhance their learning experience within the discipline area.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- The role of digital technologies in future art and design practice.
- Digital drawing, painting, montage and collage.
- Utilising digital literacies with Adobe Creative Cloud programmes; specifically, Adobe Photoshop & Illustrator for building an appropriate digital foundation to build upon.
- Mobile application awareness for future social media developments.
- Preparation of digital and analogue artwork for different applications.
- Preparation and use of silk screens for printed textile process.
- Identification of fibres and fabrics.
- Safe working practice with dyes, chemicals and equipment.
- Application of dyes, chemicals and equipment.
- Documenting process, through recorded image, sampling, and technical notes.
- Time management, reading recipes, writing notes, referencing techniques and understanding plagiarism and copyright within the design process.
- Critical thinking and making, through material choices, process knowledge and sustainable choices

- Importance of continued reflection and self-reflection
- Considering process through playful ongoing investigation of design identity; including values, culture and intercultural awareness, heritage, diversity and inclusion.
- Future skills for a range of assessment modes, including blogs, vlogs, video, presentations, performances, posters, exams and written coursework.
- Skills and attitudes which underpin resilience and learning agility
- Team working strategies to build confidence and grow self-esteem.

AIM(S)

- To advance the student's awareness and appreciation of digital and material necessities, skills, and challenges relevant to the multidisciplinary area of surface pattern and textiles, enhancing the foundations for successful completion of their degree programme and to broaden their future employment opportunities.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- demonstrate an inquisitive approach to problem solving and an advancement of foundational knowledge in digital and material practice;
- identify practical opportunities to explore the relationships between traditional, current, emerging, and future digital and material design practices in the context of surface pattern and textiles.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- The importance of digital technologies in future art and design practice and how they are applied to context and output.
- Evolving design drawing practice; including Digital drawing, painting, montage and collage from application to practical output.
- Building upon digital literacies with Adobe Creative Cloud programmes; specifically, Adobe Photoshop & Illustrator.
- The use of mobile applications for future social media developments.
- Preparation and considered composition of digital and analogue artwork for different applications, exploring repeat systems and further design methods, focusing on context.
- Independent preparation and use of silk screens for printed textile process.
- Independent Identification of fibres and fabrics.
- Continued safe working practice with dyes, chemicals, and equipment.
- Advanced application of dyes, chemicals, and equipment.
- Refined documenting process (correctly noted and recorded samples), through recorded image, sampling, and technical notes.

- Design thinking and making, through informed investigations, that propose and evaluate problem solutions.
- Importance of critical reflection and self-reflection
- Considering process and the vision of the future through a refined ongoing investigation of design identity.
- Recognising and overcoming cognitive bias, through an open approach to material investigation.
- Recognising the importance of individual design differences within your peer group and developing context
- The significance of interdisciplinary thinking in finding effective solutions to problems both digitally and in an analogue setting.
- Skills and attitudes which underpin resilience and learning agility decision making frameworks and techniques.
- Consider contemporary global issues and material responsibility in the design process.

AIM(S)

- To introduce students to creative design craft processes to encourage and develop visual and intellectual explorations and responses to a range of media and disciplines.
- To give the students technical knowledge and making skills in a number of core materials fundamental to Design Crafts and develop an understanding and appreciation for these materials and their qualities.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- demonstrate the ability to research, record and evaluate visual, spatial, and perceptual information and evidence the generation of ideas independently and / or collaboratively in response to a set brief or activity;
- demonstrate the ability to select and apply a range of materials, techniques, and processes and to reflect upon their effectiveness and environmental impact;
- demonstrate understanding and skills in manipulating and controlling materials core to Design Crafts showing an awareness of the materials and processes used and their potential / limitations / impact in response to a creative design brief.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Drawing with materials and mixed media as research.
- Design and making methods.
- Concept and design development.
- Research and analysis of contextual application.
- Presentation skills.
- Evaluation of environmental impact.
- Ceramic construction and glaze induction.
- Jewellery: Hand piercing, soldering, form and finish.
- Glass cutting, fusing and slumping.
- Evaluation of environmental impact.

Title	Design and Make 2: 3D Thinking
Date	11/10/2023
Level	4
Credits	30
Pre-Requisites	None
DBS Check	May be required ☐ Not required ☒

AIM(S)

- To broaden students' research capabilities and develop visual language and conceptual thinking in response to a set brief.
- To develop problem solving skills through the process of comprehension, investigation, exploration and practical interaction with materials, techniques and processes.
- To engage students in the practical and conceptual enquiry into casting processes for them to gain knowledge and skills in mould-making and casting for the creation of 3D objects through set projects.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- demonstrate the development of ideas through to constructed outcomes evidencing ability to select and use appropriate materials and processes;
- demonstrate critical awareness of the context and impact of their work at all levels and evidence developed conceptual awareness and reflective skills in practice;
- demonstrate skills and knowledge of mould-making and casting in a range of materials;
- evidence research, ideas and critical thinking through practical application and experimentation.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Contextualised concept development.
- Drawing and recording strategies.
- Development and translation of ideas from 2D to 3D (analogue and digital).
- Design development and realisation.
- Presentation formats.
- Social, economic and environmental impact.
- Basic mould making for glass, ceramics and other materials.

- Working with wax and lost wax casting techniques.
- Slip casting ceramics and introduction to glazing.

AIM(S)

- To equip students with basic skills in industry standard digital software for designing, presenting and visualising, developing understanding of the application of these skills within professional contexts.
- To build students' confidence, resilience and independent learning through suitable technology and build awareness of how this supports and enhances their learning experiences within Design Crafts.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon the successful completion of this module, the student should be able to:

- demonstrate basic skills in digital software to enable the capture and professional presentation of research and design ideas;
- demonstrate an understanding of the core digital skills required for creative practice, from initial idea development through to presentation and making.

INDICATIVE CONTENT

- Adobe Creative Suite e.g. Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign.
- Digital Drawing.
- Time management and working online.
- Research skills.
- Critical thinking.
- Identity and sense of place.
- Introduction to Studio Photography for 3D designers and makers.
