Comments:

- Research & Analysis- some research. More artist research is needed. The importance of which would help you see how other artists approach your chosen media and subject. You started to annotate and looked at a few interesting artists but you did not take it at all far enough. There was also no reference for the plants r animals you decided to use as your final pieces.
- Development/Experimentation with Media - Further exploration and experimentation is also required. Concept idea is a really nice one but you need to be able to develop these ideas much further visually and add more of your own visual interpretation to them. This is a shame really as if your ideas has been fully developed they could have been a really striking set of cards.
 Artbook –A nicely constructed art-book with interesting uses of various papers. Very nice front cover.
 Crayons –Nice use on black paper
 Pastels –Workshop examples provided
 Watercolour –A good variety of experimentation
 Oil –competent example of colour mixing
 Acrylic –Interesting use of acrylic on black paper. Would have been good to see this put into use in your final studies.
 Own Choice –Not highlighted clearly in your research. The glue gun experiments were an interesting start. Also you wanted to try papermaking.
 Digital - Displayed a good understanding of photoshop during the workshops.

Print –No screen print evident. A well produced etching

3. Technical skill- The final outcome doesn't work as a series of six. The mountain is at odds with the other five. Also one is black and white. They could also have been developed further.
4. Subject Knowledge-The lack of research was evident in your final outcome. This is an important marking criteria. You need to learn to research in more depth and use your research to inform your working practice as you progress through your project.
5. Presentation & Communication- A nicely presented portfolio of work, clearly labeled. Easy to read through.
6. Personal Learning & Development - As you have stated in your self-evaluation form, you are aware of the importance of time management. There is potential in your work that you need to explore fully and develop further.
7. Professional practice- You work well with in the studio environment. The brief needs to be looked at closely as the six post cards needed to be in colour. This is important when working in a professional capacity to provide the correct response to a client's request.

You are such a lovely member of the group Chloe full of life and energy you now need to channel your energy into your working practice. Please make time for a personal tutorial.

These marks and comments are provided to give feedback on your performance and level of achievement for the assessed module component.
They are subject to ratification at the Examination Board and are for guidance only until they are confirmed.

COMMON ASSESSMENT AND MARKING CRITERIA

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA	OUTRIGHT FAIL	MARGINAL FAIL	SATISFACTORY	GOOD	VERY GOOD	EXCEPTIONAL
	0-34%	35-39%	40-49%	50-59%	60-69%	70-79%	80-100%
1. Research & Analysis Systematic exploration and selection of sources; effective interpretation and evaluation of findings.	Limited or no material presented with limited or no evidence of critical enquiry.	Material presented indicates a basic degree of insight and is of limited relevance to the task.	Material presented is adequate and relevant demonstrating the application of standard research techniques.	Material presented shows a good range of sources, is well organised and interpreted in a manner relevant to the task.	Connections have been made between sources and qualitative judgements have been made in the interpretation of these findings.	Research is extensive, well documented and critically evaluated with new personal judgements made and applied.	Research and exploration is impressive both in extent and depth and the level of interpretation and critical insight is highly advanced.
2. Development Formulation of innovative and effective concepts through appropriate application of problem solving, creative experimentation and testing methods.	Limited or no engagement with the practical and creative processes of ideation.	Basic proposals have been made but limited in scope and lacking in considered and focused development processes.	Proposals are adequate and are delivered within a familiar and well established framework of methods.	Proposed concepts are formulated with a good degree of detail through the use of a variety of systematic and exploratory methods.	Concepts display innovative ideas within established territories, which are well resolved through sound practical and creative processes.	Proposals respond effectively to unfamiliar or new conceptual territories and expand perceptions of process and/or product.	Proposals both challenge and extend the conceptual territory and set new benchmarks for innovation and effectiveness within the field.
3. Technical Skill Effective utilisation of appropriate materials, tools and techniques and the level of skill demonstrated in their application to the realisation process.	Limited or no awareness and utilisation of tools and techniques are demonstrated.	Rudimentary processes may have been applied but without consideration and competence.	Skills demonstrated display adequate awareness and appropriate application of standard materials and methods.	Controlled application of a range of materials and methods with good standards of finishing evident.	Communication of intent is fully executed demonstrating diversity of process and effective technique.	Extensive and highly advanced technical skills in established processes demonstrating sensitivity and excellence in idea realisation.	Outstanding levels of technical skill in all aspects of the realisation process demonstrating the assimilation and development of cutting edge processes and techniques.
4. Subject Knowledge Understanding and application of concepts and underlying principles associated with the discipline and the specific context of study.	Unable to grasp or communicate key principles or knowledge.	Limited understanding and communication of key principles or knowledge.	Evidence of basic understanding of the relevant concepts and underlying principles.	Knowledge is accurate and effectively applied in relation to the specific context.	Knowledge is extensive and the understanding of the context exhibits awareness of the breadth and depth of established views.	Knowledge has been assimilated and individual and personal perspectives have been formulated and debated with effectiveness.	Discipline and context specific knowledge are substantive and a highly advanced synthesis of these elements creates new or expanded perspectives.
5. Presentation & Communication Clarity and effectiveness in the deployment of appropriate media to communicate a message relevant to specialist and non-specialist audiences.	Appropriate media for communication have not been identified or applied effectively.	Limited awareness of the audience and a lack of clarity and organisation are demonstrated.	Basic awareness of the audience and clarity of message is demonstrated in deployment of standard communication forms.	Selection and application of media and conventions show good understanding of the audience and context.	Communication media have been selected and deployed to maximise impact for the selected audience and context.	Individual stylistic approaches have been implemented to communicate to a diverse range of audiences in a highly compelling and effective way.	Presentation and communication methods employed are not only highly individual, compelling and effective but also combine media in an innovative way.
6. Personal Learning & Development Personal responsibility demonstrated in managing own learning through programme engagement, self-directed study and reflective practice.	Little or no responsibility taken for own learning demonstrated by poor attendance, engagement and reflection.	Inconsistency in programme engagement and poor awareness of personal learning and development needs.	Evidence of some reflective practice contributing to appropriate effort and engagement to further personal development.	Evidence of regular reflective practice and awareness of individual strengths and weaknesses demonstrable in core learning and self directed study.	Reflective practice and individual development is extended beyond core learning, is well managed and documented.	Full responsibility for own learning and development is evidenced in detail demonstrating critical appraisal of purpose, progress and future direction.	Outstanding level of engagement with all elements of the programme enhanced by the personal drive and passion to extend learning beyond established parameters and into new domains.
7. Professional Practice Demonstrates those attributes expected in professional practice including individual initiative, project management, collaborative working and inter-personal skills.	No demonstrable understanding of professional expectations and does not work effectively as an individual or with others.	Poor level of productivity as an individual or in a collaborative context, ineffective management and little understanding of professional life.	Demonstrates awareness of the relevant attributes for professional practice and delivers work to the minimum requirements as an individual and/or in collaboration.	Works to the relevant standards and meets most requirements as stipulated in both individual and team working scenarios.	Meets most or all of the relevant standards and in some areas exceeds the requirements as stipulated, taking control of some aspects of project management.	Often works above the relevant standards and exceeds the requirements as a team member, leader or individual in a variety of working scenarios	Always works well above the relevant standards and demonstrates outstanding individual and collaborative professional attributes in every working scenario encountered.
